An Anthology of French and Francophone Singers from A to Z Michaël Abecassis, Marcelline Block, 2018-06-11 Every musical form has had an impact on the linguistic practices of our society. French song is a vector of cultural, social and stylistic values. Throughout the world, songs in the French language are used in the teaching of French; professors incorporate songs into the curriculum in order to illustrate differences of register and linguistic variation as well as to raise lexical or grammatical questions. As a form of popular expression, song is a genre that has in recent years become the focus of serious academic scholarship and criticism. However, few linguists have paid attention to French song and its linguistic uses. This richly illustrated mini-dictionary about French singers fills this gap by offering a collection of portraits of the greatest singers of the French language and how they have constructed the musical landscape in both France and the larger francophone community and the world as a whole. Through rediscovering these classic and contemporary artists who contribute to the creation of the sonorous universe of the 20th and 21st centuries, the volume determines how these musical genres influence the French language and nourish our collective imagination. By plunging into francophone song, one can achieve a better understanding of the culture and the language of its speakers.

Meditation on the Divine Legitimacy of Man Bogdan J. Wnuk, 2009-07-02 Meditation is the result of departing from and returning to Christianity. It is about tasting again the salt of Jesus' teachings and rejoicing in imitating him in our eternal life, which for us Christians begins down here on earth and will continue on in heaven. The Catholic Church, which I served as an altar boy from the age of 6 to the age of 18, made me a legalistic robot with little or no free will. I was engulfed in guilt and despair that I will never amount to anything good spiritually. One day I quit trying to become a good Catholic and went on a journey of discovery of other, more attractive religions only to find along the way that Jesus is the way.
