Patrick Modiano, 2007-01-01 While his preoccupation with the period of the Occupation remains a permanent theme Patrick Modiano is increasingly interested in the exploration of time and memory and the attendant problem of reconstituting the past This volume explores all these features It casts new light on Modiano's earliest novels examines afresh his more recent work including his stories for children situates it in the context of contemporary writing and unravels the intricacies and subtleties of his style It underlines Modiano's position as one of France's major writers of the twentieth and twenty first centuries and will be of interest to all who are interested in the modern French novel and the complex interactions between fiction and history La petite Bijou Patrick Modiano, 2006 Violent Histories David Gascoigne, 2007 This series aims to publish new research monographs and essays into relationships and interactions between culture and identity The notions of both culture and identity are broadly conceived interdisciplinary and theoretically diverse approaches are encouraged in a series designed to promote a better understanding of the processes of identity formation both individual and collective
