La privatisation David J. Donaldson,Dileep M. Wagle,1995 IFC Lessons of Experience No 1F This report reviews the experience of the International Finance Corporation IFC in its role as advisor and investor in privatization transactions during the past decade In pursuit of its mandate to further economic development by encouraging the growth of productive private enterprise in developing countries the IFC has naturally and increasingly been involved in supporting this movement The premise of the report is that privatization will always be partly based on political considerations including expected redistribution of wealth and the resulting winners and losers. It discusses the IFC's experience from two perspectives as an advisor involved before the sale which illustrates how the IFC assists in the trade off between political and economic goals to conclude a deal and after privatization which discusses the resulting economic benefits. The IFC asserts that its role in privatization is defined by the evolving frontiers of political commitment. Within those frontiers it can help expand privatization possibilities by performing advisory assignments providing necessary investments and developing capital market institutions. The IFC demonstrates that privatization strategies can assume many forms with few set prescriptions.

La privatisation dans les pays en transition Oli Havrylyshyn, Oleh Havrylyshyn, Donal McGettigan, 2000-03-09

A decade ago with the breakup of the Soviet Union and the start of market oriented reforms in many former socialist economies of Central and Eastern Europe the prospect of privatizing inefficient state owned companies figured prominently in both popular and academic writings. As the headline event symbolizing change from central planning to capitalism privatization seemed to promise an end to the inefficiencies of central planning the key to freeing the resources and talents of this huge area and lifting its living standards to those of the industrial countries. What broad lessons were learned from the experience of the past ten years? Along with their successes prominent failures have also marked this recent history especially in Russia and in other countries of the former Soviet Union the overall task ahead thus remains vast if the original vision of greater freedom and higher living standards is to be realized.

La privatisation de l'État Frédéric Rouvillois, Michel Degoffe, 2012

La 4e de couverture indique En 1900 il semblait inenvisageable que l'état devienne propriétaire d'entreprises qu'il se transforme en industriel en marchand ou en banquier. N'aurait-ce pas risqué d'aboutir un jour au collectivisme? Un siècle plus tard c'est l'amorce d'une privatisation de l'état oxymore que certains jugent scandaleux et inadmissible qui est l'ordre du jour y compris lorsqu'un ministre brandit contre un groupe industriel la menace d'une nationalisation. Selon une approche historique de la Révolution l'état ne saurait être que res publica la chose de tous chappant radicalement toute privatisation. Pourtant certaines structures étatiques ont ou ont pu avoir des rapports beaucoup plus complexes et plus nuancés avec la sphère privée et en particulier l'état français sous l'Ancien régime moderne structuré et centralisé qui n'hésite pas à déléguer l'initiative privée une large part de ses missions régaliennes. La figure de l'état exclusif et monopolisateur n'est donc pas une fatalité et il est d'autres façons de le concevoir. Cette privatisation de l'état constitue du reste une tendance lourde dans la plupart des pays développés où cette évolution se réalise selon deux modalités la première l'état vers le privé correspondant un transfert graduel de compétences la seconde plus novatrice l'état comme le privé tendant assimiler l'état une personne privée sans qu'il soit tenu compte de la singularité irréductible qui résulte de son objet et de sa nature. Pour le juriste pour l'économiste et le financier pour le politique et plus largement pour le citoyen l'état et son devenir sont plus que jamais au centre du débat
