Tahar Ben Jelloun Ruth Amar,2005 This study is an analysis of elements that build the narrative strategies of Tahar Ben Jelloun s work On formal and thematic levels the narrative sequence and its interwoven strands manifest a story in perpetual becoming in constant dissolution and evolution In fact the story is an infinite quest It is told and repeated in various manners with no possibility to be exhausted This continual quest of the story is nourished by a lack expressed by the needs of the post colonial Maghrebien novel for compensating a world that was but is not any more However this lack conditions the production of the story The text nourishes itself from the lack it produces We could say then that Ben Jelloun s novel is not the production of a story but the emphasized production becoming itself Story it is not the story that is told but the story of its production On the one hand this study redefines Ben Jelloun s narrative strategies on the other hand it focuses on the importance of the perpetual becoming in all the aspects manifested in his work reflecting the difficulties of its hybrid nature the function of the symbolical writing the construction of characters and their contribution to the fragility of the story the revelation of generative forces of a form and its rupture Although other novels are taken into account the focus of this study is on central texts like L ecrivain public Moha le fou Moha le sage Harrouda L enfant de sable La nuit sacree La Reclusion solitaire Les yeux baisses      Adrienne Lecouvreur Eugène Scribe, Ernest Legouvé, 1890      The public examination
