Everything's an Argument Andrea A. Lunsford, John J. Ruszkiewicz, Keith Walters, 2012-10-05 This best selling brief text shows students how to analyze all kinds of argument not just essays and editorials but clothes cars ads and even Web sight designs and then how to use what they learn to write effective arguments Reflections on Theoretical Issues in Argumentation Theory Frans H. van Eemeren, Bart Garssen, 2015-08-08 This volume presents a selection of papers reflecting key theoretical issues in argumentation theory Its six sections are devoted to specific themes including the analysis and evaluation of argumentation argument schemes and the contextual embedding of argumentation The section on general perspectives on argumentation discusses the trends of empiricalization contextualization and formalization offers descriptions of the analytical and evaluative tools of informal logic and highlights selected principles that argumentation theorists do and do not agree upon In turn the section on linguistic approaches to argumentation focuses on the problem of distinguishing between explanation and argument while also elaborating on the role of verbal indicators of argument schemes All essays included in this volume point out notable recent developments in the study of argumentation The Argument Writing Toolkit Sean Ruday, 2015-07-16

In order for students to write effective arguments they need to read good arguments In this practical book you'll find out how to use mentor texts to make writing instruction more meaningful authentic and successful Author Sean Ruday demonstrates how you can teach middle school students to analyze the qualities of effective arguments and then help them think of those qualities as tools to improve their own writing You'll learn how to Introduce high interest topics to students to get them interested and engaged in argument writing Teach students to look at multiple sides of an issue and critically evaluate evidence to construct informed defensible arguments Make argument writing an interactive student driven exercise in which students pursue their own writing projects Use mentor texts to help students learn the core concepts of argument writing and apply those skills across the curriculum The book is filled with examples and templates you can bring back to the classroom immediately as well as an annotated bibliography which links the concepts in this book to the corresponding Common Core State Standards Blank templates are also available as printable eResources on our website <http://www.routledge.com/9781138924390> Upsetting Composition Commonplaces Ian Barnard, 2014-10-15 In Upsetting Composition Commonplaces Ian Barnard argues that composition still retains the bulk of instructional practices that were used in the decades before poststructuralist theory discredited them While acknowledging that some of the foundational insights of poststructuralist theory can be difficult to translate to the classroom Barnard upends several especially intransigent tenets that continue to influence the teaching of writing and how students are encouraged to understand writing Using six major principles of writing classrooms and textbooks clarity intent voice ethnography audience and objectivity Barnard looks at the implications of poststructuralist theory for pedagogy While suggesting some evocative poststructuralist pedagogical practices the author focuses on diagnosing the fault lines of composition's refusal of poststructuralism rather than on providing solutions in the form of teaching templates. Upsetting Composition Commonplaces addresses the need to more effectively engage in poststructuralist concepts in composition in an accessible and engaging voice that will advance the conversation about relations between the theory and teaching of writing.

New Directions in Literature and Medicine Studies Stephanie M. Hilger, 2017-11-11 This book is situated in the field of medical humanities and the articles continue the dialogue between the disciplines of literature and medicine that was initiated in the 1970s and has continued with ebbs and flows since then. Recently the need to renew that interdisciplinary dialogue between these two fields which are both concerned with the human condition has resurfaced in the face of institutional challenges such as shrinking resources and the disappearance of many spaces devoted to the exchange of ideas between humanists and scientists. This volume presents cutting edge research by scholars keen on not only maintaining but also enlivening that dialogue. They come from a variety of cultural, academic and disciplinary backgrounds and their essays are organized in four thematic clusters: pedagogy, the mind-body connection, alterity and medical practice.

Bonnie Lisle, 2004-11-02 Rhetor Response Peter H. Khost, 2018-09-10 Bridging the disciplinary divide between writing and literature, Rhetor Response introduces the concept and pedagogical applications of literary affordances—the ways in which readers use and integrate literature into their own writing or lives. Unconcerned with authorial intent, interpretive meaning, or critical reception, affordance signifies a shift in focus from what literary texts mean and do to what one can do with them. This book presents both opportunities and challenges to writing studies, a field whose burgeoning disciplinary independence ironically relies on a sizable underclass of specialists in literature rather than writing. Incorporating elements of rhetorical theory, literary criticism, pedagogical methodology, political critique, and psychological and philosophical memoir, Peter H. Khost complicates and revives the relevance of literature from belles lettres to fanfiction by turning from interpretation to affordance in order to identify readers' applications of literary textual features to unrelated lived situations. Rhetor Response theorizes and exemplifies literary affordance as a constructive step toward professional reconciliation as well as an entry into greater textual power and pleasure for students and readers. It is a one-of-a-kind resource for college writing program administrators, faculty, and scholars in English and writing studies and graduate and advanced undergraduate students across both disciplines.
