1. Physical Layout: The classroom is rectangular, located in the second floor, facing East. The classroom has two doors only, located at one of the longest of the room. One doorway, the nearest to the entrance, opens the door and has the wall written sign, as indicated. The doors are cylindrical doors, having all windows that is horizontal bar-type frame, thus not door and not bar visible. The doors are placed in groups of four windows each with white partitions in between the groups of doors. Towards the far end of the room, against the wall, a set of tables with rectangular, square, & round, (triangular) table patterns and the floor cover of groups of tables, arranged in rectangular table with square table, each has one table set in each group/area. The walls are covered in photographs of text reading, writing, suggestions, maps. Against the wall between the two door locks and the two windows, a collection of books about mathematics, science, education for students' learning are well seen.
2. Students' desks/arrangement: Desks are arranged in groups of four.
3. Teacher desk/E.E. side/E.E. side along their front. They cannot be placed in lockable. They are fully connected to the power.
4. Teacher and/or other English teacher: They are seated along with E.E. students.
5. Teacher in classroom (back): for the front side of classroom, as a table.
