Job: Flowers are important because they attract insects and animals that can help the plant. They are also the part of the plant that can make seeds and they are the part of the plant that can make food.	Job: The stem is the part of the plant that holds everything up. It also carries water and food from the roots to the leaves and flowers.	Job: Leaves are important because they catch sunlight to help the plant make its own food. They are also important for the plant to breathe and cool itself.
