The book is a great effort on the part of the authors. Professor Lee T Person, Ed D, Associate Dean for Education, Ottawa University. It's clear that these authors know the research, know the history of reading instruction and know the classroom. They have a keen sense of how to help the teachers move forward in understanding and implementing good literacy practices by utilizing new insights without being iconoclastic. Professor James Rooks, Calvin College. The pedagogical elements of the text are excellent. One of the things I like best about the book is the inclusion of the appropriate activities within each chapter so that students can read about and practice the concepts first hand.
