

Eulogy for Mom

Today we honor the life of my mom. She was a truly amazing woman who was the kindest and most loving person in the world.

I can honestly say she was my best friend and to try and do justice right her in this short eulogy will be impossible. She dedicated her life to family and making sure we were supported in whatever we did and that we never felt anything other than loved.

She sacrificed more than I'll ever know and even when she was putting everyone else before herself she still made time to listen to all our problems.

Everyone who was fortunate enough to know her was in awe of everything she achieved. And the warmth and happiness she brought to us cannot be overstated.

I loved her more than words could possibly say and she will live on in my heart forever more

The Paradise of the Christian Soul, Delightful for Its Choicest Pleasures of Piety of Every Kind. A New and Complete Translation. By Lawful Authority Jacob Merlo Horstius, 1877

Dying to Teach Jeffrey Berman, 2012-02-01 In Dying to Teach Jeffrey Berman confronts the most wrenching loss imaginable the death of his beloved wife Barbara. Through four interrelated narratives how Barbara wrote about her illness in a cancer diary how he cared for her throughout her illness how his students reacted to his disclosure that she was dying and how he responded to her death Berman explores his efforts to hold on to Barbara precisely as she was letting go of life. Intensely personal Dying to Teach affirms the power of writing to memorialize loss and work through grief and demonstrates the importance of death education teachers and students writing and talking about a subject that until now has often been deemed too personal for the classroom.
