that apply philosophical methods and approaches to feminist concerns Offers a key view of the project of centering women s experience Includes topics such as feminism and pragmatism lesbian philosophy feminist epistemology and women in the history of philosophy Hypatia Sandy Donovan,2008 A biography of the classical philosopher and scientist Hypatia of Alexandria Disappearing Ink Eileen O'Neill,2025-03-07 When Eileen O'Neill 1953 2017 published her ground breaking essay Disappearing Ink Early Modern Women Philosophers and the History of Philosophy in 1998 women philosophers were virtually absent from encyclopedias of philosophy and the numerous histories and anthologies of early modern thought This essay would come to have an enormous impact signaling the beginning of the movement to introduce early modern women philosophers into the canon In its densely packed 46 pages Disappearing Ink presented the names major works and principal theses of literally dozens of forgotten women whose works were published during the early modern period and who had engaged in correspondence with central male figures but whose names and works had since been erased Disappearing Ink reprints this now canonical piece together with subsequent essays some widely read some harder to locate and one on Cartesianism and the Gendered Mind written in 2013 and published here for the first time The essays in Part I develop O'Neill's views on feminist history of philosophy articulating an account of feminist historiography that is inclusive yet at the same time textually nuanced The essays in Part II provide in depth treatment of individual figures and themes These essays discuss the views of early modern women philosophers such as Mary Astell Margaret Cavendish and Mme de Lambert alongside those of Descartes Leibniz Poullain de la Barre and the Scholastics engaging with questions of mind body interaction occasional causation physical influx pan organicism and whether the Cartesian mind is gendered The sole essay in Part III departs from the historical orientation of Parts I and II This essay informed by O'Neill's deep knowledge of art history is an illuminating study of agency in representations of women in feminist erotic art of the 1980s Combined these works trace the complete arc of O'Neill's thought from painstaking studies of individual themes and figures to a sweeping vision of how feminism should inform our approach to the history of early modern thought indeed to the history of philosophy more generally More than anyone else O'Neill explained why women were excluded from the canon and showed how they could be incorporated into it Philosophy in America at the Turn of the Century,2003 This special supplement of the Journal of Philosophical Research contains invited papers prepared by several well known philosophers on the occasion of the 100th anniversary of the founding of the American Philosophical Association APA These wide ranging essays look ahead as well as to the recent and more distant past and suggest the diversity directions and challenge of contemporary philosophy in the United States These papers have been published as a service to the profession by the Journal of Philosophical Research in cooperation with the APA's Committee on Lectures Publications and Research Women & Christianity: From the Reformation to the 21st century Mary T.
