Autoethnography Pedagogy and Practice Kitrina Douglas,David Carless,2025-04-18 Autoethnography Pedagogy and Practice supports and generates new insights into how autoethnography can be taught supervised and practised by sharing the experiences and reflections of researchers from a wide range of fields and disciplines An international cast of leading researchers provide practical examples of how autoethnography can be successfully introduced into health and human sciences curricula showcasing examples of the power of autoethnography within and beyond academia By privileging contributors experiences within their own field of study as students teachers supervisors and researchers this book explores how autoethnography can be introduced nurtured and sustained in challenging academic environments Each chapter considers three interrelated areas Disciplinary Contexts which examines autoethnography s impact across different fields Relationships which considers how to successfully manage relational and care dynamics from undergraduate through professor levels and Ethics which addresses the many ethical considerations that can arise across a wide range of contexts Autoethnography Pedagogy and Practice is a book that encourages readers to engage in autoethnographic practice to create innovative dialogical and collaborative texts that push the boundaries of polyvocality and diversity within their own disciplines It will be of interest to researchers in Psychology Medicine Pharmacology Allied Health Nursing Mental health Sport and Exercise Science Coaching Sociology Psychotherapy Theatre Studies and Communication Studies Anthology of French Language Psychiatric Texts Francois-Regis Cousin,Jean Garrabé,Denis Morozov,2008-09-15

Comic Books and American Cultural History Matthew Pustz,2012-02-23 Comic Books and American Cultural History is an anthology that examines the ways in which comic books can be used to understand the history of the United States Over the last twenty years there has been a proliferation of book length works focusing on the history of comic books but few have investigated how comics can be used as sources for doing American cultural history These original essays illustrate ways in which comic books can be used as resources for scholars and teachers Part 1 of the book examines comics and graphic novels that demonstrate the techniques of cultural history the essays in Part 2 use comics and graphic novels as cultural artifacts the third part of the book studies the concept of historical identity through the 20th century and the final section focuses on different treatments of contemporary American history Discussing topics that range from romance comics and Superman to American Flagg and Ex Machina this is a vivid collection that will be useful to anyone studying comic books or teaching American history The Routledge Anthology of Women's Theatre Theory and Dramatic Criticism Catherine Burroughs,J. Ellen Gainor,2023-09-29

The Routledge Anthology of Women s Theatre Theory and Dramatic Criticism is the first wide ranging anthology of theatre theory and dramatic criticism by women writers Reproducing key primary documents contextualized by short essays the collection situates women s writing within and also reframes the field s male defined and male dominated traditions Its collection of documents demonstrates women s consistent and wide ranging engagement with writing about theatre and performance and offers a more expansive understanding of the forms and locations of such theoretical and critical writing dealing with materials that often lie outside established production and publication venues This alternative tradition of theatre writing that emerges allows contemporary readers to form new ways of conceptualizing the field bringing to the fore a long neglected vibrant intelligent deeply informed and expanded canon that generates a new era of scholarship learning and artistry The Routledge Anthology of Women s Theatrical Theory and Dramatic Criticism is an important intervention into the fields of Theatre and Performance Studies Literary Studies and Cultural History while adding new dimensions to Feminist Gender and Sexuality Studies

Psychoanalytic Perspectives on Women, Menstruation and Secondary Amenorrhea

Danielle Redland,2020-05-01 I can be a mother a wife a daughter a sister and a woman without having periods This book explores two of the oldest and most important symbols of all time menstruation and secondary amenorrhea Women of menstruating age commonly experience secondary amenorrhea a cessation of periods but most people have never heard of the term nor do they realise what it represents Danielle Redland s curiosity as to why this is posits that menstrual conditions need to be decoded not just simply treated Surveying menstruation and Secondary Amenorrhea SA principally from a psychoanalytic perspective with sociocultural historical political and religious angles also examined Psychoanalytic Perspectives on Women Menstruation and Secondary Amenorrhea draws secondary amenorrhea out of the shadows of its menstruating counterpart and explores how narratives of womanhood and statehood dominate Chapters on blood ideology and war amenorrhea on Freud s treatment of Emma Eckstein and on the psycho mythology of Pygmalion present the reader with visions beyond patriarchy towards more thoughtful ideas on the feminine challenging assumptions about gender identity and what is deemed good for women Rich in clinical examples the book locates menses and their cessation at the heart of personal experience and examines psychosomatic phenomena the link between psyche and body and the value of interpretation From the author s own analysis to a variety of cases linked to hysteria anorexia stress trauma abuse helplessness and hopelessness individual stories and narratives are sensitively recovered and carefully revealed This refreshing example of multi layered research and psychoanalytic enquiry by a new female writer will be of great interest to psychologists psychotherapists healthcare and social work professionals and readers of gender studies history politics and literature
