

UNITED STATES HISTORY RESEARCH PAPER

As part of this U.S. History course, each student is required to complete a research paper. Your first question undoubtedly will be “how long does it have to be”? Well, here is your answer: five pages. Fortunately, you may select your topic from a huge pool of possibilities. You may choose anything (with my approval) in U.S. History from the years 1830-2000. However, you should keep in mind that this paper MUST address a debatable or controversial topic. So, when you choose your topic, choose wisely. Here is an example:

Topic: John F. Kennedy

Question: Who killed JFK?

Possible thesis: Although it is popularly accepted that Lee Harvey Oswald conspired with others to assassinate JFK, it is evident that he indeed acted alone.

What you should gather from this is that if you choose JFK, your paper should not be on the life and times of JFK. Your paper should address a critical question or controversy or debate about JFK. Another possible topic involving JFK could be his handling of the Cuban Missile Crisis. Either way, if you select a person, don't give me their biography. Select something from that person's life, or that they were involved in, so that you can formulate a thesis, find differing opinions in your research, and come to some sort of conclusion.

Another example:

Topic: Westward Expansion

Question: Was our acquisition of the West truly justified by the idea of Manifest Destiny?

Possible thesis: However romantic and heroic the deeds of those who “won the West” for America may have been portrayed, there is indisputable and often ignored evidence to suggest that the West was in fact conquered through manipulation, broken treaties, and outright aggression.

Again, it is important to identify some aspect of your topic that can be debated or discussed. Notice that for this topic I focused on just one part (Manifest Destiny) of westward expansion. You could never give a history of westward expansion in 5 pages. But, you can discuss the idea of Manifest Destiny in five pages. Or, you could discuss the building of the Transcontinental Railroad, or the experience of Donner Party. Focus your paper on something small enough to fit into a five page paper.

Most importantly, MAKE SURE IT INTERESTS YOU! Try to select something that you might possibly enjoy learning about. Your enthusiasm for it will come through

History Research Paper Assignment:

Critical Readings in the History of Christian Mission Martha Frederiks, Dorottya Nagy, 2021-06-22 This selection of texts introduces students and researchers to the multi and interdisciplinary field of mission history. It apprises them with current discussions, insights, and theories. The four parts of this book acquaint the readers with methodological considerations and recurring themes in the academic study of the history of mission. Part one revolves around methods; part two documents approaches; while parts three and four consist of thematic clusters such as mission and language, medical mission, mission and education, women and mission, mission and politics, and mission and art. The text selection represents a wide variety of disciplines, authors, and backgrounds. The texts were chosen because they address the complexities involved in studying the history of Christian mission. Critical Readings in the History of Christian Mission is suitable for course work and other educational purposes.

Instructional Leadership Efforts and Evidence-Based Practices to Improve Writing

Instruction VanSlander, Jennifer, 2023-10-11 Writing is a critical skill for academic and professional success, yet it is often neglected in schools. According to achievement data, only a quarter of students in the United States are proficient writers, indicating a significant need for improvement in writing instruction. One contributing factor to this problem is the lack of school and district leadership in writing instruction. School improvement efforts are often concentrated on reading and math, leaving writing instruction overlooked. Additionally, issues related to writer identities, self-efficacy in writing, and educator training can also impact the effectiveness of instructional leadership in this critical subject. Instructional Leadership Efforts and Evidence-Based Practices to Improve Writing Instruction, edited by Jennifer VanSlander of Columbus State University, provides within this peer-reviewed book an exploration of evidence-based practices aimed at developing instructional leaders and enhancing student achievement in writing. It covers a broad range of topics related to writing instruction, including learning theories, conceptual models, and the latest empirical research associated with the supervision, organization, implementation, and monitoring of writing programs and instructional approaches. With its emphasis on writer identities, self-efficacy, equitable and inclusive practices, curriculum planning, and implementation, assessment, instructional frameworks, and managing instructional change, this book provides educators with a comprehensive guide to improving writing instruction. It is an essential resource for educators who seek to increase the effectiveness of instructional leadership and writing instruction at the classroom, school, or district level.

Utilization of Oral History Resources in a Classroom Setting Jane Ellen Baker Koons, 1985

Teaching Music History Mary Natvig, 2017-07-05 Unlike their colleagues in music theory and music education, teachers of music history have tended not to commit their pedagogical ideas to print. This collection of essays seeks to help redress the balance, providing advice and guidance to those who teach a college-level music history or music appreciation course, be they a graduate student setting out on their teaching career or a seasoned professor having to teach outside his or her speciality. Divided into four sections, the book covers the basic music history survey usually taken by music majors music appreciation and introductory courses aimed at non majors special topic courses such as women and music music for film and American music and more general issues such as writing using anthologies and approaches to teaching in various situations In addition to these specific areas broader themes emerge across the essays These include how to integrate social history and cultural context into music history teaching the shift away from the classical canon and how to organize a course taking into consideration time constraints and the need to appeal to students from a diverse range of backgrounds With contributions from both teachers approaching retirement and those at the start of their careers this volume provides a spectrum of experience which will prove valuable to all teachers of music history Teaching History, 2004 The 1965 History Institutes Revisited ... James Lea Cate, 1966 Making Teaching and Learning Matter Judith Summerfield, Cheryl C. Smith, 2010-12-09 This volume captures the spirit of collaboration and innovation that its authors bring into the classroom as well as to groundbreaking undergraduate programs and initiatives Coming from diverse points of view and twenty different disciplines the contributors illuminate the often perplexing debates about what matters most in higher education today Each chapter tells a unique story about creating vital pedagogical arenas that have the potential to transform teaching and learning for both faculty and students These exploratory spaces include courses under construction cross college and interdisciplinary collaborations general education reform initiatives and fresh perspectives on student support services faculty development freshman learning communities writing across the curriculum on line degree initiatives and teaching and learning centers All these spaces lend shape to an over arching system wide project bringing together the often disconnected silos of undergraduate education at The City University of New York CUNY America s largest urban public university system Since 2003 the University s Office of Undergraduate Education has sponsored coordinated efforts to study and improve teaching and learning for the system s 260 000 undergraduates enrolled at 18 distinct colleges The contributors to this volume present a broad spectrum of administrative and faculty perspectives that have informed the process of transforming the undergraduate experience Combined the voices in these chapters create a much needed exploratory space for the interplay of ideas about how teaching and learning need to matter in evolving notions of higher education in the twenty first century In addition the text has wider social relevance as an in depth exploration of change and reform in a large public institution The History Handbook Carol Berkin, Betty Signe Anderson, 2003 Prepared by Carol Berkin of Baruch College City University of New York and Betty Anderson of Boston University This book teaches students both basic and history specific study skills such as how to read primary sources research historical topics and correctly cite sources Substantially less expensive than comparable skill building texts The History Handbook also offers tips for Internet research and evaluating online sources Teaching LGBTQ Politics Edward F. Kammerer, Jr., Royal G. Cravens, III, Erin Mayo-Adam, 2025-08-01 An innovative collection of advice resources and ideas for faculty teaching LGBTQ politics Limited resources exist to support faculty teaching LGBTQ politics The first of its kind this edited volume brings together scholars from across the discipline of political science to offer guidance on how to better teach LGBTQ issues Rooted in and focused on the US context the book is divided into three sections The first addresses developing and teaching LGBTQ politics courses at both the undergraduate and graduate levels The second offers suggestions for incorporating LGBTQ topics into other political science courses And the last homes in on various pedagogical concerns that can arise when teaching LGBTQ politics Contributors provide a host of resources including lesson plan templates reading assignments and strategies and takeaways from their own experiences teaching in the field Reflective Teaching ,2004 History Microcomputer Review ,1993

The World Book Encyclopedia: Research Guide - Index World Book, Inc,2007 An encyclopedia designed especially to meet the needs of elementary junior high and senior high school students A Life with History John Morton Blum,2004 The author of such classic works as The Republican Roosevelt V Was for Victory and Years of Discord John Morton Blum is one of a small group of intellectuals who for more than a quarter of a century dominated the writing of American political history Writing now of his own career Blum provides a behind the scenes look at Ivy League education and political power from the 1940s to the 1980s Blum insightfully recounts a long and distinguished journey that began at Phillips Academy where he first realized he could make a career of teaching and writing history He tells how young men were socialized to the values of the Northeastern establishment in those years before World War II and how as a non practicing Jew he learned to overcome bigotry both at Andover and at Harvard which then had no Jewish professors In 1957 Blum joined the faculty of Yale University s history department widely regarded as the nation s best where he became both influential and popular and where his students included one future U S president as well as others who aspired to the office He reveals much about the inner workings of Ivy League education and tells of controversies over the Vietnam War and the Black Panthers his role in Eugene McCarthy s presidential campaign and how he searched for common ground between reactionary faculty and radical students More than a recounting of a singular life Blum s story explains how political history was researched and written during the second half of the twentieth century describing how the discipline evolved gained ascendancy and was challenged as historical fashions changed It also offers revealing glimpses of such prominent academics as Kingman Brewster Arthur Schlesinger Jr C Vann Woodward and William Sloan Coffin Over a distinguished career Blum witnessed considerable change in elite educational institutions where minorities and women were grossly underrepresented when he first entered academia In a memoir brimming with insight and laced with humor he looks back at the academy not a refuge from reality but an alternative reality as he reflects upon his intellectual journey and his contributions to the study and writing of twentieth century American history The Immigration History Newsletter ,1974 Materials & Methods for History Research Carla J. Stuffle,Simon Karter,1979 America, History and Life ,2001 Provides historical coverage of the United States and Canada from prehistory to the present Includes information abstracted from over 2 000 journals published worldwide Essays in Economic and Business History ,1986 American History: Selected topics in cultural, social, and economic history Warren Susman, John Whiteclay Chambers, 1983 The New Larned History for Ready Reference, Reading and Research Josephus Nelson Larned, 1923 Making the Journey Leila Christenbury, 2006

Making the Journey is a staple of secondary English methods courses and teacher libraries because it not only provides practical advice on what to do in the classroom and how to act but also offers a realistic but optimistic sense of what it means to embrace the practice of good teaching. Now trusted educator, writer, and researcher Leila Christenbury has returned with a remarkable new edition of her classic. The third edition of Making the Journey will be both refreshingly new and satisfyingly familiar to those who've come to rely on Christenbury's wisdom and uncommon common sense. Every chapter has been revised and updated with new examples, the latest research, and stories from today's classrooms. Even more important, Christenbury has devoted new sections to discussing instructional and political topics crucial to the contemporary teacher, including supporting English language learners, developing students' ability to write on demand, meeting the challenge of high stakes standardized testing, balancing depth of coverage with breadth in standards-based curricular planning, creating tests and other assessments that align with curricular goals, and provide useful information for subsequent instruction, engaging students' reading interests through nontraditional real-world genres like graphic novels, teaching writing and media literacy through digital age innovations such as blogs and WebQuests, navigating the politics of school while remaining an activist professional. With the latest smartest strategies, techniques, and ideas, as well as Leila Christenbury's trademark pragmatism, and know how, the third edition of Making the Journey will be an indispensable guide for anyone just starting their own journey into teaching or for anyone already on their way.
