The Author Training Manual Nina Amir, 2014-03-18 If you want to write a book that's going to sell to both publishers and readers you need to know how to produce a marketable work and help it become successful. It starts the moment you have an idea. That's when you begin thinking about the first elements of the business plan that will make your project the best it can be. The reality is that you don't want to spend time and energy writing a book that will never get read. The way to avoid that is to create a business plan for your book and evaluate it and yourself through the same lens that an agent or acquisitions editor would. The Author Training Manual will show you how to get more creative and start looking at your work with those high standards in mind. Whether you're writing fiction or non-fiction or intend to publish traditionally or self-publish, author Nina Amir will teach you how to conduct an effective competitive analysis for your work and do a better job at delivering the goods to readers than similar books that are already on the shelf. Packed with step-by-step instructions, idea evaluations, sample business plans, editor and agent commentaries, and much more, The Author Training Manual provides the information you need to transform from aspiring writer to career author.

Stimulating Non-Fiction Writing! Emma

Hughes-Evans, Simon Brownhill, 2019-01-25 Stimulating Non-Fiction Writing Inspiring Children Aged 7-11 offers innovative and exciting ways to engage children in non-fiction writing, giving professionals the confidence and practical advice that they need to support children in producing quality non-fiction texts in the classroom. Packed full of interesting ideas, resource suggestions and practical activities, the book explores the various ways professionals can purposefully encourage child authors to develop their non-fiction writing skills. Tried and tested resources, gold star tips and practical suggestions are underpinned by research-informed teaching strategies and academic information to strengthen professional practice associated with the teaching of non-fiction writing. By taking a stimulating approach to each text type and linking activities to known texts and stimuli, the book offers differentiated advice for working with children in Lower and Upper Key Stage 2. Chapters consider text types that include Instructions, Persuasive texts, Non-chronological reports, Correspondence texts, Discussion texts. This new text is the perfect guide for inspiring children aged 7-11 in the classroom and will energise and enrich classroom provision and practice by being an essential resource for teachers and students on teacher training courses.

Enjoying the Track of Term: An Psychological Symphony within Easy Nonfiction Ideas Guide

In a world eaten by screens and the ceaseless chatter of fast transmission, the melodic beauty and psychological symphony created by the published term usually fade in to the back ground, eclipsed by the persistent noise and disruptions that permeate our lives. But, located within the pages of Easy Nonfiction Ideas Guide a stunning literary treasure overflowing with raw feelings, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Constructed by a masterful musician of language, this interesting masterpiece conducts readers on a psychological trip, skillfully unraveling the hidden tunes and profound affect resonating within each carefully constructed phrase. Within the depths of the touching analysis, we will investigate the book's key harmonies, analyze their enthralling publishing style, and submit ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers souls.
