Red Is for Rubies Linda Mitchelmore, 2014-04-24 After a lifetime apart a twist of fate brings two old flames together asking the eternal question Once love is lost can it be found again Jonty and Lydie were each other's first love and nothing else mattered but that So when Jonty promised to buy Lydie a precious ruby necklace when his art career took off she believed him with all her heart But the ruby never materialized and Jonty left Lydie pregnant and heartbroken Nearly thirty years later Lydie is stuck in a marriage she never wanted to a man she never really loved and desperate for a way out Then a tragic set of circumstances brings Jonty back into the picture and Lydie must decide exactly what she wants from her life and if she can ever let Jonty back into it The House at Miller's Court K. Patrick Malone, 2010-12 GRAND DESIGN. LINDA. MITCHELMORE, 2016 Whitaker's Cumulative Book List, 1984 Nineteenth Century Literature Criticism Paula Kepos, 1991-09-27 Presents literary criticism on the works of nineteenth century writers of all genres nations and cultures Critical essays are selected from leading sources including published journals magazines books reviews diaries broadsheets pamphlets and scholarly papers Criticism includes early views from the author's lifetime as well as later views including extensive collections of contemporary analysis British Women and Cultural Practices of Empire, 1770-1940 Rosie Dias, Kate Smith, 2018-10-04 Correspondence travel writing diary writing painting scrapbooking curating collecting and house interiors allowed British women scope to express their responses to imperial sites and experiences in the 18th 19th and 20th centuries Taking these productions as its archive British Women and Cultural Practices of Empire 1775 1930 includes a collection of essays from different disciplines that consider the role of British women's cultural practices and productions in conceptualising empire While such productions have started to receive greater scholarly attention this volume uses a more self-conscious lens of gender to question whether female cultural work demonstrates that colonial women engaged with the spaces and places of empire in distinctive ways By working across disciplines centuries and different colonial geographies the volume makes an exciting and important contribution to the field by demonstrating the diverse ways in which European women shaped constructions of empire in the modern period Japan and China: China, its history, arts, and literature Frank Brinkley, 1904 The Cumulative Book Index, 1994 A world list of books in the English language Japan, Its History, Arts, and Literature: China, its history, arts, and literature Frank Brinkley, 1902 China; its history, arts and literature Frank Brinkley, 1904 Ida Lupino, Forgotten Auteur Alexandra Seros, 2024 The acting career of legendary star Ida Lupino is well known but there has been little analysis of her directorial career She was one of the few female directors in Classical Hollywood and the only one with membership in the Directors Guild of America between 1948 and 1971 Like Orson Welles her career was notable in transitioning from acting to directing first in film and then in television in addition to helping to create and run the production company The Filmakers sic Her films were notably about women navigating difficult positions in society dealing with controversial issues such as rape and bigamy Nevertheless she was the first female director of a noir film The Hitch Hiker which is a suspenseful tale of two motorists taken hostage by a serial killer in the Southwest. Alexandra Seros, a filmmaker herself, examines Lupino's career with a focus on her directorial roles and how she navigated this as a woman as well as a wife and mother in male-dominated Hollywood. She explains how Lupino began directing and formed The Filmakers before providing a close analysis of three of her films: Not Wanted, Never Fear, and the aforementioned The Hitch Hiker, and examining how she navigated the shooting and negotiated with the censors to be able to tell the stories she wanted to tell. Seros then details Lupino's transition to television and her taking the director's reins in that medium as well. Lupino directed episodes in a wide variety of genres but specialized in Westerns and thrillers. Even as the press and the studios tried to focus on her femininity as a dutiful wife and loving mother, she often refused to play along and be coded as feminine in this way. Seros analyzes three of Lupino's directed episodes, comparing them with similar work done by noted male directors: Nicholas Ray, Robert Aldrich, and Alfred Hitchcock, stressing Lupino's efficient, effective work in finishing the shows on time and within budget. She finishes by arguing that Lupino was a new kind of auteur whose collaborative family approach to filmmaking was far ahead of its time.
