Muhammad Critical Lives:

Critical Lives: Muhammad Yahiya Emerick, 2002-04-01 Muhammad was a religious visionary and political leader Raised in the harsh Arabian Peninsula and orphaned while still a child this unlikely leader and military genius received a calling to transform his society from a collection of raiding tribes into one of the world's most progressive societies His message of monotheism and righteousness motivated an entire people to abandon idolatry and spread the word of God to surrounding nations Although he was a military genius his greatest accomplishments came from the religion he preached Islam which called its adherents to lead a life of prayer charity and contemplation The second largest religion in the world both Islam's prophet and its values are today often misunderstood by adherents and outsiders alike This concise informative biography explores Muhammad's background and boyhood as well as the culture and society in which he lived A look at Muhammad as a family man and how his personal life was a testament to his high regard for women Muhammad's mission as a prophet and his new religion's philosophy on topics ranging from monotheism to interfaith relations The Qur'an and how it was revealed how Muslims view it in their religious life and the concept of Jihad from Muhammad's perspective The Critical Lives series takes a biographical look at pivotal fascinating people and a critical look at the work and accomplishments that rightly or wrongly made them unique influential and enduring Discover the events that shaped their lives and how they came to shape our world

The Life and Work of Muhammad Yahiya Emerick, 2002 Given the current prominence of Islam it has become more important than ever that Westerners and Muslims gain an accurate look at who Muhammad was and what he stood for Provides a fascinating picture of both Muhammad and the world in which he lived Rather than settling in to the comfortable life of a merchant Muhammad had a vision of himself bringing the message of the one God to his idolatrous people Coverage includes the claim to prophethood Muhammad's teachings and his first converts the Muslim flight to Medina Muhammad's battles and the eventual bloodless Muslim conquest of Mecca Muhammad's political victory in the Arabian peninsula and wars with Byzantium and Persia the death of Muhammad and the ways in which his message lived beyond him and Muhammad's place in history his role in Muslim theology and cosmology the ways he is viewed in different Muslim sects and regions and the influence of Muhammad today in Islamic movements both peaceful and fundamentalist Routledge

Handbook on Early Islam Herbert Berg, 2017-08-10 The formative period of Islam remains highly contested From the beginning of modern scholarship on this formative period scholars have questioned traditional Muslim accounts on early Islam The scholarly fixation is mirrored by sectarian groups and movements within Islam most of which trace their origins to this period Moreover contemporary movements from Salafists to modernists continue to point to Islam's origins to justify their positions This Handbook provides a definitive overview of early Islam and how this period was understood and deployed by later Muslims It is split into four main parts the first of which explores the debates and positions on the critical texts and figures of early Islam The second part turns to the communities that identified their origins with the Qur'an and Muhammad In addition to the development of Muslim identities and politics of particular focus is the relationship with groups outside or movements inside of the umma the collective community of Muslims The third part looks beyond what happened from the 7th to the 9th centuries CE and explores what that period the events figures and texts have meant for Muslims in the past and what they mean for Muslims today Not all Muslims or scholars are willing to merely reinterpret early Islam and its sources though some are willing to jettison parts or even all of the edifice that has been constructed over almost a millennium and a half The Handbook therefore concludes with discussions of re imaginations and revisions of early Islam and its sources Almost every major debate in the study of Islam and among Muslims looks to the formative period of Islam The wide range of contributions from many of the leading academic experts on the subject therefore means that this book will be a valuable resource for all students and scholars of Islamic studies as well as for anyone with an interest in early Islam

Teaching Critical Religious Studies Jenna Gray-Hildenbrand, Beverley McGuire, Hussein Rashid, 2022-08-11 Are you teaching religious studies in the best way possible Do you inadvertently offer simplistic understandings of religion to undergraduate students only to then unpick them at advanced levels This book presents case studies of teaching methods that integrate student learning classroom experiences and disciplinary critiques It shows how critiques of the scholarship of religious studies including but not limited to the World Religions paradigm Christian normativity Orientalism colonialism race gender sexuality and class can be effectively integrated into all courses especially at an introductory level Integrating advanced critiques from religious studies into actual pedagogical practices this book offers ways for scholars to rethink their courses to be more reflective of the state of the field This is essential reading for all scholars in religious studies

Non-Western Perspectives on Learning and Knowing Sharan B. Merriam, 2007 Introduces systems of knowing and learning different from the Western educational tradition This book contains chapters on Native American Indigenous Knowledge Confucianism Hinduism Islam Buddhism Maori Latin American Perspectives and African Indigenous Knowledge which acquaint readers with alternative understandings of learning

A Fresh Look at Islam in a Multi-Faith World Matthew Wilkinson, 2014-10-30 WINNER Cheryl Frank Memorial Prize International Association of Critical Realism A Fresh Look at Islam in a Multi Faith World provides a comprehensively theorised and practical approach to thinking systematically and deeply about Islam and Muslims in a multi faith world It makes the case for a contemporary educational philosophy to help young Muslims surmount the challenges of post modernity and to transcend the hiatuses and obstacles that they face in their interaction and relationships with non Muslims and visa versa It argues that the philosophy of critical realism in its original dialectical and metaReal moments so fittingly underlabours Bhaskar 1975 for the contemporary interpretation clarification and conceptual deepening of Islamic doctrine practice and education as to suggest a distinctive branch of critical realist philosophy specifically suited for this purpose This approach is called Islamic Critical Realism The book proceeds to explain how this Islamic Critical Realist approach can serve the interpretation of the consensual elements of Islamic doctrine such as the six elements of Islamic belief and the five pillars of Islamic practice so that these essential features of the Muslim way of life can help Muslim young people to contribute positively to life in multi faith liberal democracies in a globalising world Finally the book shows how this Islamic Critical Realist approach can be brought to bear in humanities classrooms by history religious education and citizenship teachers to help Muslim young people engage informatively and transformatively with themselves and others in multi faith contexts
