The Lost Word (English Edition) Arthur Conan Doyle,2018-11-17 I stood like a man paralyzed still staring at the ground which I had traversed Then suddenly I saw it There was movement among the bushes at the far end of the clearing which I had just traversed A great dark shadow disengaged itself and hopped out into the clear moonlight I say hopped advisedly for the beast moved like a kangaroo springing along in an erect position upon its powerful hind legs while its front ones were held bent in front of it It was of enormous size and power like an erect elephant but its movements in spite of its bulk were exceedingly alert For a moment as I saw its shape I hoped that it was an iguanodon which I knew to be harmless but ignorant as I was I soon saw that this was a very different creature Instead of the gentle deer shaped head of the great three toed leaf eater this beast had a broad squat toad like face like that which had alarmed us in our camp His ferocious cry and the horrible energy of his pursuit both assured me that this was surely one of the great flesh eating dinosaurs the most terrible beasts which have ever walked this earth As the huge brute loped along it dropped forward upon its fore paws and brought its nose to the ground every twenty yards or so It was smelling out my trail Sometimes for an instant it was at fault Then it would catch it up again and come bounding swiftly along the path I had taken The Lost World by Arthur Conan Doyle was first published in 1912 The story about an expedition to the Amazon basin where dinosaurs and other extinct creatures still survive soon became a bestseller The character of Professor Challenger was introduced in The Lost World Aspects of Reforming Michael Parsons,2014-07-08 The book illustrates the fact that in reforming theology sixteenth century theologians also reformed practice or the imperatives of Christian living Experts in reformation studies identify and elucidate areas of sixteenth century reforming activity in Martin Luther John Calvin and other leading reformers to demonstrate the thoroughgoing nature of the reformation agenda The interpretation of Scripture the centrality of Jesus Christ the Jewish question freedom and pastoral insight form the contents of an important section on Luther The use of feminine imagery for God the Augsburg Confession deification education and the gospel are treated in relation to Calvin The final section deals with Oecolampadius the Son of Man texts in Matthew justification texts on difficult deaths and a Trinitarian exegesis of Scripture By careful reading of both the historical situation and the primary texts this volume adds significantly to our understanding of the period
