Forthcoming Books Rose Army, 2000-06 Midwifery - E-Book Sally Pairman, Jan Pincombe, Carol Thorogood, Sally K. Tracy, 2014-10-01 Perfect for Bachelor of Midwifery students Postgraduate Midwifery students Combined Nursing degree students Combined Nursing degree students Midwifery Preparation for Practice 3e is the definitive midwifery text for Australian and New Zealand midwifery students The third edition continues to reinforce the established principles of midwifery philosophy and practice that of working in partnership with women and midwifery autonomy in practice and from this perspective presents the midwife as a primary healthcare practitioner It carefully examines the very different maternity care systems in Australia and New Zealand exploring both autonomous and collaborative practice and importantly documents the recent reforms in Australian midwifery practice Midwifery Preparation for Practice 3e places women and their babies safely at the centre of midwifery practice and will guide inform and inspire midwifery students recent graduates and experienced midwives alike Key contributors from Australia and New Zealand Critical Thinking Exercises and Research Activities Midwifery Practice Scenarios Reflective Thinking Exercises and Case Studies Instructor and Student resources on Evolve including Test Bank questions answers to Review Questions and PowerPoint presentations New chapter on Models of Health Increased content on cultural considerations human rights sustainability mental health obesity in pregnancy communication in complex situations intervention complications in pregnancy and birth and assisted reproduction Midwifery Practice Scenarios throughout Narrative Intervention Programme Victoria Joffe, 2021-04-08 This book improves the understanding and telling of stories in secondary school students and young adults Specifically designed for older children and young adults this practical language programme was created by a specialist speech language therapist with input from secondary school teachers and students It focuses on enhancing the understanding and expression of stories in students aged from 8 to 18 with language and communication difficulties and aims to create an awareness of how storytelling can be used to enhance learning in school and social interactions in school and home environments It facilitates storytelling It enhances the joy and enjoyment in telling stories It identifies different types of narratives and provide examples for each type It encourages effective listening and attention skills It examines different means of making story production more interesting through vocal variety body language and print It encourages the use of the story planner in planning and structuring essays in the classroom and for homework Dr Victoria Joffe is a specialist speech and language therapist and senior lecturer in developmental speech language and communication impairments in the Department of Language and Communication Science at City University London Victoria runs various workshops for PCT s LEA s and schools on child speech disorder evidence based practice in speech and language therapy and collaborative practice in education and provides training for therapists and teaching staff on working with children and young adults with speech language and communication needs in education Victoria is currently involved in a large scale intervention project funded by the Nuffield Foundation on enhancing language and communication in secondary school children with language impairments on which this programme is based Bookbuyers' Reference Book ,1993 Rewriting God Elaine Lindsay,2021-11-22 Women are rarely if ever mentioned in commentaries upon Australian Christianity and spirituality Only exceptional women are recognized as authorities on religious matters Why is this so Does it matter Don t people from the same religious tradition share similar experiences of the divine regardless of their gender Rewriting God asks whether women have been writing about the divine and whether their insights are different from those contained in malestream accounts of Australian Christianity and spirituality An analysis of the writings of popular theologians and religious commentators over the last twenty years suggests that the most popular form of spirituality among Australian theologians is Desert Spirituality An analysis of women s autobiographical writings however suggests that the desert is irrelevant to many women s spiritual experiences This book through a close investigation of the fictions of Thea Astley Elizabeth Jolley and Barbara Hanrahan attempts to posit alternative forms of women s spirituality and to signal ways in which this spirituality is already being expressed From the evidence gathered here it becomes obvious that traditional expressions of Australian Christianity and spirituality are gender specific and that they have functioned to deny women s religious experiences and to silence their claims to equality in the sight and service of the divine It becomes obvious too that women have been developing their own forms of religious expression and that these may be expected to supplant gradually withering images of Desert Spirituality Whether this new imagery will strengthen Australian Christianity or whether it merely marks a decline in the authority of Christianity remains a moot point Joints and Connective Tissues Kerryn Phelps,Craig Hased,2012-10-31 Joints and Connective Tissues General Practice The Integrative Approach Series In order to diagnose and manage the patient presenting with musculoskeletal symptoms it is important to distinguish whether the pathology is arising
