Le Grand Voyage:

Le Grand Voyage Jorge Semprún, 1963 Le Pays renversé: Amérindiens et Européens en Amérique du Nord-Est 1600-1664 Denys Delâge, 2011-11-01 This innovative interdisciplinary study offers a comprehensive analysis of the French Dutch and English colonization of northeastern North America during the early and middle decades of the seventeenth century. It is the first book to pay serious attention to the European economic and political factors which promoted colonization and it argues that the prime determinant was the uneven development of agricultural systems in western Europe. Ethnic Groups and Marital Choices Madeline Kalbach, 2011-11-01 Since the late nineteenth century the rate of intermarriage between members of different European ethnic and cultural groups in Canada has increased and resulted in a gradual blending of these communities. This book the first detailed comparative study of ethno religious intermarriage provides the background for understanding the dynamics of intermarriage in a culturally pluralistic society like Canada. Using for the first time data from the 1871 Census of Canada in conjunction with data from the 1971 Census Madeline Richard delineates the general patterns of ethnic intermarriage in 1871 and 1971 and specifically considers the trends for the English Irish Scotch French and Germans. Choosing a number of characteristics such as level of literacy nativity age and place of residence for the husbands the author determines the odds for their marrying outside their communities. She also examines the socio demographic characteristics such as group size sex ratio per cent urban and level of literacy of each group to determine the marriage patterns of the husbands. Richard's findings confirm that marital assimilation was occurring to some extent as early as 1871 and that the rate of intermarriage has doubled since then. Of particular interest are the major shifts exhibited by Irish Scottish and German husbands who in 1871 overwhelmingly married within their community while in 1971 they typically found their mates outside. This book is not only about marital patterns it is also about the ethnic groups themselves. It gives detailed descriptions of the English Irish Scottish French German Italian Dutch Polish Scandinavian Ukrainian and other groups their immigration history settlement patterns and socio demographic characteristics as these all have some bearing on patterns of mate selection. Abyssinia's Samuel Johnson Wendy Laura Belcher, 2012-05-31 As a young man Samuel Johnson one of the most celebrated English authors of the eighteenth century translated A Voyage to Abyssinia by Jeronimo Lobo a tome by a Portuguese missionary about the country now known as Ethiopia. Far from being a potboiler this translation left an indelible imprint on Johnson. Demonstrating its importance through a range of research and attentive close readings Abyssinia's Samuel Johnson highlights the lasting influence of an African people on Johnson's oeuvre. Wendy Laura Belcher uncovers traces of African discourse in Johnson's only work conceived for the stage. Irene several of his short stories and of course his most famous fiction The History of Rasselias Prince of Abissinia. Throughout Belcher provides a much needed perspective on the power of the discourse of the other to infuse European texts. Most pointedly she illuminates how the Western literary canon is globally produced.

developing the powerful metaphor of spirit possession to suggest that some texts in the European canon are best understood as energumens texts that are spoken through Her model of discursive possession offers a new way of theorizing transcultural intertextuality in particular how Europe s others have co constituted European representations Drawing on sources in English French Portuguese and Ge ez this study challenges the conventional wisdom on Johnson s work from the inspiration for the name Rasselas and the nature of Johnson s religious beliefs to what makes Rasselas so strange A rich monograph that fuses eighteenth century studies comparative literature and postcolonial theory Abyssinia s Samuel Johnson adds a fresh perspective on and a wealth of insights into the great enigmatic man of letters Jorge Semprun Ursula Tidd,2017-12-02

The Spanish Communist exile and Francophone Holocaust writer Jorge Semprun 1923 is a major contributor to contemporary debates on the politics and ethics of remembering the Franco era Communism and the Holocaust in French Spanish and broader European contexts His sophisticated literary testimonies have become landmark texts not least for their commitment to represent the lived experience of history In this first detailed study in English of Jorge Semprun s writing Ursula Tidd shows how Semprun explores the parameters of self writing as an address to the other in a richly intertextual corpus which weaves together history fiction and auto bio thanatography and gives voice to the traumatic experiences of geographical and political exile and concentration camp internment Ursula Tidd is Senior Lecturer in French Studies at the University of Manchester UK Studying French Cinema Isabelle Vanderschelden,2013-04-22
