Summary Writing Practice - English FAL Grade 8

Read the passage below and write a summary of between 50-60 words.

Instructions:

- Use 50-60 disadvantages of the internet.
- Use full sentences.
- Write only one point per sentence.
- Use your OWN words.
- Indicate your word count at the end of your summary.
- Give your summary a title but don't include the title in your word count.

Using the internet for a long time can isolate people from their friends and family. Many people meet friends and partners online, but "cyber" relationships can't replace relationships in real-life. In fact, internet users can even become addicted. Although this kind of addiction differs from chemical addiction, it is a rising problem. Some people leave their job and suffer other negative effects from overuse.

There are many real websites that offer factual information. However, there are many sites overflowing with false information. It is very difficult to know which sites are true and which are not. It is also very difficult to struggle to tell the difference between them.

Finally, there are their personal information online when sharing or losing. This
