Standard Essays S. K. Tarafder, 2008      Modern Essays A. Gupta, 2009      Jensen's Format Writing Frode Jensen, 2016-10-04 Jensen's Format Writing is concerned with developing expository writing skills for high school students. This type of writing exposes, puts forth, explains, reveals, or exhibits in detail about something. It has a purpose to inform, clarify, and perhaps even to persuade. Such writing may simply describe, or it may give a series of reasons. In any case, there is a fundamental point that is made. How that point is made may often determine whether the piece is accepted or rejected. Students completing this course will learn valuable skills: the secret of cutting your work in half when it comes to writing a paper; how to order your presentation for its most powerful effect on the reader; a technique for getting the essence of what you read down on paper for future reference; how to stack up your ideas so that they flow together in a natural fashion; how to move ideas from sentence to sentence by following a simple rule; all about what and how to document your sources when doing research and writing.

Writing Paragraphs and Essays Joy Wingersky, Jan Boerner, Diana Holguin-Balogh, 1995 This text is a comprehensive guide to developing well-focused paragraphs and short essays. It is an all-in-one rhetoric reader handbook ideal for instructors who want to order only one book for the course. The authors carefully pace instruction and help students actively experience the relationship among reading, thinking, and writing. The book is characterized by an extremely friendly teaching voice, simple yet complete explanations, and ample opportunity for students to discuss practice and write.

So you want to be a Doctor?: The ultimate guide to getting into medical school Stephan Sanders, Harveer Dev, David Metcalfe, 2010-12-09 More people are applying to medical school than ever before, and so you want to be a Doctor will give you the best head start. It distills the wisdom of over 100 medical students, admissions specialists, and doctors, revealing the truth about the medical school application process. This comprehensive guide leads the reader through every stage of the process: from deciding if you want to be a doctor through to moving to university and coping with the first year at medical school. With a detailed profile for every undergraduate and graduate medical school in the UK, it will help students to choose the best medical school for them. It will also help with the other big decisions that need to be made, such as which A-level subjects to take and whether to apply to Oxbridge. All the essential information is covered, including: how much medical school costs; what work experience is best and how to get it; completing the UCAS form; surviving the UKCAT and BMAT admission tests; getting through the interview. Written by an author team of a medical student, recent graduate, and a widely experienced clinician, the book also contains first-hand accounts of students' personal
