Indian Ocean What seemed like a predetermined life path took an unexpected turn She was expected to take over her parents business with no freedom to choose her own career Her conservative Catholic parents rushed her into marriage Then her younger sister died of cancer at just 32 Later a grueling four year divorce battle followed involving seven custody proceedings for her three children Even her own parents turned against her leading to a total loss of contact with her family Yet the author never gave up At 36 she found new love Together with her future husband and his business partner she helped to build a pioneering group of companies that founded and shaped Germany s anime scene through the AnimaniA magazine the AnimagiC convention and the production and distribution of anime Japanese animated films After more than 15 successful years she was forced to leave it all behind Financial difficulties and a painful business split necessitated a fresh start She and her husband began again Today the author is living her dream In 2020 during the COVID pandemic she and her husband emigrated to Mauritius where they now enjoy a happy active retirement This book tells of pain betrayal new beginnings and an unbreakable will to master life It shows how despite everything one can still find the strength to reach for the stars and ultimately to grasp them A deeply moving life story that inspires and gives hope
