However the success of a bestseller goes beyond sales. It's about connecting deeply with readers, touching their lives in a meaningful way. Inspiring Stories: Many famous authors started out with a simple manuscript and great hope. J K Rowling, for example, wrote Harry Potter and the Philosopher's Stone while struggling financially. Her book was rejected by several publishers before she finally found a publisher who believed in her story. Today the Harry Potter series is a global phenomenon. Rowling is a shining example of how persistence and belief in your work can lead to success. Another example is Stephen King, who had his first book Carrie rejected by more than 30 publishers before it was published. King, now one of the best selling authors of all time, shows that initial rejection is not an insurmountable obstacle but just part of the journey.
