No more plowing through your journal collection or wandering the library stacks to get those elusive journal pages containing instructions to authors. This unique book contains all the information you need to know whether the journal will consider your manuscript the journal's submission address, how to construct the abstract, illustrations, tables and references and specific information on copyright, multiple authorship, statistical analyses and page charges. The Author's Handbook of Styles for Life Science Journals gives all this information for 440 of the most important English language life science journals. In addition, some new titles that promise to be important to their fields like Nature Medicine and Emerging Infectious Diseases are also included. Organized by journal title, the handbook's entries are uniformly arranged to allow direct comparison between journals. Information is presented in an easy to use, easy to read format with clear and explicitly stated instructions.
