

Annotating and Summarizing Examples

Character	In this section, write the names of the people involved, as well as where and when the story is taking place. Next, write down questions you have about this novel, and any questions about the reading that you do not understand (and/or respond like your teacher to identify). Use the Comprehension Check questions for answers. These will help you with easier questions or answers you should be identifying.
Character	In this section, write down anything that you find familiar; either a situation you have experienced, or someone that reminds you of someone else. Or list about three that are similar to something you have already listed.
Comprehension Check: Stories	Use this section to write anything you feel is important to remember from the Comprehension Check questions for each chapter.
Summary	Print! In your own words, the action and important details of your reading. Your summary should not be more than about one paragraph, or 5-7 sentences long.
Prediction	In this section, write your prediction of what you think will happen next. What effect will this event have on those involved?
Reflection	In this section, write down any quotes, sayings, or moments that affected you in some way. Do the names in this section the author wrote this novel? Are there any themes you recognize? Do you like this novel so far? Why or why not? What changes could be made to this novel to make it connect with other novel's themes? What else would you like to know about this author/genre/topic?
