A Council by Another Name? Christoph Theobald, SJ, 2025-08-15 The ongoing synodal process of the Catholic Church engages a new vision of being church within human history and society At the European synod of bishops in 1999 Cardinal Carlo Maria Martini called for a new ecumenical council Too wise to use this term explicitly he said that he hoped for an experience of universal confrontation between bishops at the dawning of the new century Unresolved questions demanded sound answers a lack of ordained ministers the role of women in the church the participation of the laity

new challenges regarding sexuality and marriage ecumenism and more Since then even more questions have been raised regarding the sexual abuse crisis the experience of widespread discouragement and polarization within the church In A Council by Another Name world renowned French theologian Christoph Theobald explains why synodality is a constitutive dimension of the church and urges readers especially ecclesial leaders to trust the synodal process and to engage in it in their rightful place Based on conversion that is both personal and institutional Theobald cites Pope Francis's call for cooperation and creativity as an essential element for confronting the current difficulties effectively approaching the future peacefully and welcoming a new and decisive vision of the church within human history and society This is a revised and expanded edition of the second French edition A Council by Another Name? Christoph Theobald, 2025-10-26 The ongoing synodal process of the Catholic Church engages a new vision of being church within human history and society At the European synod of bishops in 1999 Cardinal Carlo Maria Martini called for a new ecumenical council Too wise to use this term explicitly he said that he hoped for an experience of universal confrontation between bishops at the dawning of the new century Unresolved questions demanded sound answers a lack of ordained ministers the role of women in the church the participation of the laity new challenges regarding sexuality and marriage ecumenism and more Since then even more questions have been raised regarding the sexual abuse crisis the experience of widespread discouragement and polarization within the church In A Council by Another Name world renowned French theologian Christoph Theobald explains why synodality is a constitutive dimension of the church and urges readers especially ecclesial leaders to trust the synodal process and to engage in it in their rightful place Based on conversion that is both personal and institutional Theobald cites Pope Francis's call for cooperation and creativity as an essential element for confronting the current difficulties effectively approaching the future peacefully and welcoming a new and decisive vision of the church within human history and society This is a revised and expanded edition of the second French edition

First Holy Communion Mark Allen, 2010-07-15

Mark Allen found no suitable published book to prepare his son for First Holy Communion First Holy Communion in the Roman Catholic Church is something of the greatest significance equivalent to confirmation in the Church of England or Bar Mitzvah for Jewish children A lot of the material published is trite and worst of all tends to patronise the children for whom it is intended To help parents and teachers answer questions about the ceremony Mark Allen offers readings and background from scripture and catechism Children are hard headed and like stories and facts The narrative of the Bible provides facts events which happened and along with them the objective truths of revelation The Mass is our sacramental encounter with the person of Jesus Preparation therefore should be based on him and on the Gospel story of His life The preparation should reflect the unity of the mass its liturgy of the Word and the Eucharistic Rite the mystery of Christ in our community as Church Routine is the key aid to progress The course provided in this book is based on a series of half hour sessions for parent and teacher with the child It is thus both practical and down to earth The Living Church, 1954 National
