Fischerspooner New Truth:

Fischerspooner: New Truth Fischerspooner, 2014 Founded by artists Warren Fischer and Casey Spooner in 1998 Fischerspooner began as a philosophical provocation that sought to explore the expressive potential located in the gap between popular entertainment and art Soon swelling from a duo to an army of dancers stylists photographers and musicians the group has activated a variety of spaces such as traditional concert halls nightclubs construction sites parades art galleries and museums From a debut performance in a New York City Starbucks to a blitz of the international art world New Truth chronicles Fischerspooner's quest to profoundly upend the boundaries of art music and performance Music, Art and Performance from Liszt to Riot Grrrl Diane V. Silverthorne, 2018-10-18 Opening with an account of print portraiture facilitating Franz Liszt's celebrity status and concluding with Riot Grrrl's noisy politics of feminism and performance this interdisciplinary anthology charts the relationship between music and the visual arts from late Romanticism and the birth of modernism to postmodernism while crossing from Western art to the Middle East Focused on music as a central experience of art and life these essays scrutinize the musicalisation of art focusing on the visual and performing arts and detailing significant instances of intra art relations between c 1840 and the present day Essays reflect on the aesthetic relationships of music to painting performance and installation sound and silence time and space The insistent influence of Wagner is considered as well as the work and ideas of Manet Satie and Cage Thomas Wilfred La Monte Young and Eliasson What distinguishes these studies are the convictions that music is never alone and that a full understanding of the isms of the last two hundred years is best achieved when music's influential presence in the visual arts is acknowledged and interrogated
