The Cinema of Francesco Rosi Gaetana Marrone, 2020 Francesco Rosi is one of the great realist artists of post war Italian indeed post war world cinema In this book author Gaetana Marrone explores the rich visual language in which the Neapolitan filmmaker expresses the cultural icons that constitute his style and images Over the years Rosi has offered us films that trace an intricate path between the real and the fictive the factual and the imagined His films show an extraordinarily consistent formal balance while representing historical events as social emblems that examine shape and reflect the national self They rely on a labyrinthine narrative structure in which the sense of an enigma replaces the unidirectional path leading ineluctably to a designated end and solution Rosi s logical investigations are conducted by an omniscient eye and translated into a cinematic approach that embraces the details of material reality with the panoramic perspective of a dispassionate observer This book offers intertextual analyses within such fields as history politics literature and photography along with production information gleaned from Rosi s personal archives and interviews It examines Rosi s creative use of film as document and as spectacle It is also a study of the specific cinematic techniques that characterize Rosi s work and that visually compositionally express his vision of history and the elusive truth of past and present social and political realities

Shattered Liberation Nina Paulovicova, Anna Cichopek-Gajraj, Joanna Beata Michlic, 2025-12-15

Shattered Liberation Sexualized Violence Against Holocaust Survivors 1943 1946 challenges the notion of joyous liberation of Holocaust survivors by the Red Army which is often embedded in popular imagination and collective memory This is one of the first volumes to shine light on the sexualized violence that some Holocaust survivors endured in the hands of the Soviet Army partisans rescuers and army personnel in filtration camps during the liberation process By focusing on testimonies and memoirs this book discusses in detail a wide range of interactions including sexual violence rape forced cohabitation sex barter aid and romance The book addresses methodological challenges of employing survivors testimonies in an analysis of a traumatic history of liberation sexualized violence It explores the strategies survivors employed while recounting these traumatic experiences and examines how survivors experiences of sexualized violence during liberation have been both included in and excluded from public memory By challenging the popular notion of liberation as universally positive and instead focusing on the memories of Jewish survivors Shattered Liberation uncovers a far more complicated if not devastating reality

questioned The Shoah poses a double problem of caesura and continuum it is both a break in the continuity of the tradition and continuity inside of the break of modernity The intersecting of these two dimensions constitutes the basic hermeneutic conflict of the Jewish consciousness at the beginning of the twenty first century    National Union Catalog ,1978    The Book Collector ,2006    Quaderni D'italianistica ,2007
