Container      Classrooms that Work Patricia Marr Cunningham, Richard L. Allington, 2007 Cunningham and Allington's voice and presentation style are unique and I think this distinguishes their book from others. This book is an enjoyable and exciting read for my students. It makes them want to get out there and teach. They walk away from it with not only a sound set of teaching strategies but a strong sense of why they would use them and a belief that they can teach like this. Bravo Donna H. Topping, Millersville University. Classrooms That Work's strengths are the knowledge of the authors, the organization and conversational tone of the text, and the emphasis on all children can learn. I believe the information presented changed my students' perspectives on how reading and writing should be viewed and taught. Brenda Bradshaw, Southwest Missouri State University. This book is easy to understand. The most distinguishing feature is that it is comprehensive and less than 350 pages. It is practical in ways others are not. Dr. Susan McBride, California Polytechnic State University. The fourth edition of Classrooms That Work emphasizes a core set of ideas across a variety of timely topics, providing a comprehensive, balanced treatment of instructional reading methods for struggling and culturally diverse students. Pat Cunningham and Dick Allington, with their clear and friendly writing style, emphasize the importance of promoting the integration of phonics and literature-based process writing and reading instruction to enhance ALL students' learning and reading skills. It clarifies concepts, defines key terms, and offers just the right balance of research and practical coverage to make the content complete without being overwhelming. This affordable book helps teachers engage all children in meaning-centered reading by fostering powerful decoding and comprehension strategies and implementing a balanced reading program. It identifies and explores five components: real reading and writing, guided reading, guided writing, decoding, spelling, and word knowledge. The fourth edition is filled with workable, practical strategies and activities to use in the classroom. This book plays upon readers' natural curiosity and desire for relevance by offering a modern, applied approach to traditional reading topics and an in-depth look at areas of reading instruction not covered by other books. Chapters 11, 12, and 13 describe a sample day in a Building Blocks kindergarten, a sample day in a Four Blocks primary classroom, and a sample week in a Big Blocks intermediate classroom, respectively. Combined, these chapters show how all of the important components of a balanced literacy program can be integrated. For the fourth edition, the authors have reorganized the chapters to reflect an integrative approach to literacy. This new edition starts with Creating Classrooms That Work, a chapter that summarizes the characteristics of the most effective classrooms. Other chapters on words, comprehension, writing, and assessment inform teachers of the need for a balanced approach to literacy. There are also three new chapters in this edition: Creating Enthusiastic Independent Readers, Chapter 2, contains ideas for helping all children become independent readers; Building Vital, Vivid, and Valuable Vocabularies, Chapter 5, describes practical strategies for building meaning vocabulary; Building the Literacy Foundation, Chapter 3, describes activities to get young children off to a successful start in reading and writing. Meet the Authors: Patricia M. Cunningham is a professor of education at Wake Forest University in Winston-Salem, North Carolina. She has taught in various elementary grades and been a curriculum coordinator and director of reading Her major professional goal is promoting literacy for all children Richard L Allington is a professor of education at the University of Tennessee at Knoxville He is a past president of the National Reading Conference and a member of the Reading Hall of Fame Dick has extensively researched effective teaching and how schools can develop effective expert teachers

Reading and Writing in Elementary Classrooms Patricia Marr Cunningham, 2004 This K 4 text follows the style of the successful Cunningham Allington franchise It is very practical with tons of activities and grounded on solid research With new chapters on Fluency Assessment and a new organization this text offers the most current insight on thinking processes on reading and writing as language and on the importance of the affective domain Other Books by These Authors Phonics They Use Words for Reading and Writing Third Edition Patricia M Cunningham Wake Forest University ISBN 0 321 02055 3 Classrooms That Work They Can All Read and Write Third Edition Patricia M Cunningham Wake Forest University Richard L Allington University of Florida ISBN 0 205 35541 2 Schools That Work Where All Children Read and Write Second Edition Richard L Allington The University of Florida Patricia M Cunningham Wake Forest University ISBN 0 8013 3246 X Reading and Writing in Elementary School Classrooms 4e was well conceived and will only grow in popularity as more and more teachers seek support for the teaching of reading The book is a great effort on the part of the authors Professor Lee T Person Ed D Associate Dean for Education Ottawa University Its clear that these authors know the research know the history of reading instruction and know the classroom They have a keen sense of how to help the teachers move forward in understanding and implementing good literacy practices by utilizing new insights without being iconoclastic Professor James Rooks Calvin College The pedagogical elements of the text are excellent One of the things I like best about the book is the inclusion of the appropriate activities within each chapter so that students can read about and practice the concepts first hand Professor Luther R Kirk Longwood University Author Bio David W Moore serves as a Professor of Education at Arizona State University West where his teaching centers about literacy development His publication record balances research reports professional articles book chapters and books Recent co authored books include Developing readers and writers in the content areas K 12 4th ed and Starting out A guide for teaching adolescents who struggle with reading Patricia M Cunningham is a professor at Wake Forest University in Winston Salem North Carolina In addition to university teaching she worked for ten years in public school positions that included first grade teacher fourth grade teacher remedial reading teacher curriculum coordinator and director of reading Dr Cunningham has published numerous research and applied articles She is also the author of Phonics They Use and coauthor of Schools That Work Along with Dorothy Hall she developed the Building Blocks and Four Blocks frameworks for providing balanced literacy instruction in kindergarten and primary grades James W Cunningham is Professor of Literacy Education at the University of North Carolina Chapel Hill He teaches undergraduate and graduate courses in reading and writing education He has over 85 publications in professional books and journals and has presented at
