Handbook of the Library Baylor University. Library, Willard P. Lewis, 1917 Developing Literacy and the Arts in Schools Georgina Barton, 2019-07-31 The teaching of the arts and literacy in schools is often at odds with one another The desire for schools to improve results on high stakes testing can lead to a narrow view of literacy rather than one that acknowledges the unique and distinct literacies that exist in other curriculum areas including the arts With methods of communication becoming increasingly complex it will be more and more important for students to be able to utilise all semiotic modes Developing Literacy and the Arts in Schools investigates this key issue in education and offers a solution to the negative relationship between the arts and literacy Drawing on interview data and evidence from diverse classrooms it explores the pedagogies of effective arts practitioners and teachers and how they relate to theoretical frameworks to unpack the key elements of effective practice related to literacy and the arts A model of arts literacies is provided to assist arts and literacy educators in developing a common language that acknowledges and values these distinct arts literacies Themes of multimodality diversity aesthetics and reflection in relation to the arts and literacy are foregrounded throughout This book will be of great value to postgraduate students of Education specialising in arts and literacy education academics teacher educators and classroom and preservice teachers Impactful Classroom Experiences in Elementary Schools: Practices and Policies Parks,
