The Fourth Industrial Revolution in Africa David Mhlanga, Emmanuel Ndhlovu, 2023-07-11 This edited volume the third in a three volume set discusses implications of The Fourth Industrial Revolution 4IR in Africa By rebuilding natural ecosystems linking billions to digital networks and better managing assets the world may be able to undo the damage done by the industrial revolutions There are however significant concerns that institutions will not be able to adapt that governments will not adopt and regulate new technologies to reap their benefits that power shifts will result in serious new security threats that inequality will increase and that societies will break apart Written by an international panel of experts analyzes the potential of smart technology across sectors and industries in Africa to bring about long term sustainable growth Myths of Peace and Democracy? Towards Building Pillars of Hope, Unity and Transformation in Africa Munyaradzi

Mawere, Ngonidzashe Marongwe, 2016-09-01 The myths of peace and democracy in Africa are at the heart of this volume Democracy and peace have become buzz words across postcolonial Africa The gospel of democracy and peace is preached by national governments and by civil society and international organisations alike But to what extent are the ongoing sideshows and charades of quasi oligarchies in Africa really democracy What do ordinary Africans mean when they hunger and thirst for democracy and peace Positive and noble as the loud sounding rhetoric about democracy and peace in Africa might seem the reality of propaganda and dissemblance and of multi dimensional violence are simply too overwhelming not to be disillusioning This book interrogates the rampant violence enduring conflicts autocratic governance and facades of democracy amidst claims and calls for enduring peace on the continent This is a monumental resource book for human rights activists conflict management practitioners civil society activists political scientists statesmen and development practitioners It poses a challenge to those African governments who claim to embrace principles of democracy and respect for human rights to rethink and reconsider their role as ambassadors of peace hope transformation and good governance Women, Religion and Leadership in Zimbabwe, Volume 2 Molly Manyonganise, Ezra Chitando, Sophia Chirongoma, 2023-04-12

Presidential Elections in Nigeria's Fourth Republic

Babayo Sule, Usman Sambo, 2024-03-07 This book provides a uniquely detailed analysis of presidential elections in Nigeria's Fourth Republic. The authors explore the changing dynamics of voting patterns, religious politics, politicians' behaviour, and the broader political system to offer new insights into presidential systems in Africa and beyond. In doing so, they address an often neglected area of political science and cast light on the political challenges facing one of the world's largest democracies. The book's comprehensive coverage of Nigerian presidential elections and the lessons they hold for developing countries across the globe is a valuable resource for researchers, students, international institutions, and non-governmental organisations.

Development Perspectives from the South

Mawere, Munyaradzi, 2016-12-14 Not so long ago The Economist described Africa as a hopeless continent. This damning description specifically referred to the development status of Africa. While the debate on the political and socio-economic underdevelopment of Africa had been raging on prior to the Economist's daring but controversial pronouncements, it intensified from thereon. Many concerned people from within the continent and elsewhere have reproved the proclamation but mainly in newspapers and the broadcast media. Not enough has been done by development scholars to critically reflect on the description and status of Africa's development condition in a nuanced and systematic fashion. Yet it is through incisive reflections and systematic engagements with Africa's situations and circumstances that directions and solutions to the African development predicament could be forged. The present volume is an attempt to open up a constructive dialogue between the Global North and the Global South on the African underdevelopment conundrum. The book is an eye opener to African governments, social scientists, policy makers, and development scholars concerned with the urgent need to rethink, reimagine, and retheorise Africa's development gridlock.
