Bollywood in Britain Lucia Krämer, 2016-06-02 Bollywood in Britain provides the most extensive survey to date of the various manifestations and facets of the Bollywood phenomenon in Britain. The book analyzes the role of Hindi films in the British film market; it shows how audiences engage with Bollywood cinema and it discusses the ways the image of Bollywood in Britain has been shaped. In contrast to most of the existing books on the subject which tend to approach Bollywood as something that is made by Asians for Asians, the book also focuses on how Bollywood has been adapted for non-Asian Britons. An analysis of Bollywood as an unofficial brand is combined with in-depth readings of texts like film reviews, the TV show Bollywood Star 2004 and novels and plays with references to the Bombay film industry. On this basis, Bollywood in Britain demonstrates that the presentation of Bollywood for British mainstream culture oscillates between moments of approximation and distancing, with a clear dominance of the latter. Despite its alleged transculturality, Bollywood in Britain thus emerges as a phenomenon of difference, distance and Othering.

Television for Women Rachel Moseley, Helen Wheatley, Helen Wood, 2016-11-10 Television for Women brings together emerging and established scholars to reconsider the question of television for women. In the context of the 2000s, when the potential meanings of both terms have expanded and changed so significantly, in what ways might the concept of programming addressed explicitly to a group identified by gender still matter? The essays in this collection take the existing scholarship in this field in significant new directions. They expand its reach in terms of territory, looking beyond, for example, the paradigmatic Anglo-American axis and also historical span. Additionally, whilst the influential methodological formation of production, text and audience is still visible here, the new research in Television for Women frequently reconfigures that relationship. The topics included here are far-reaching, from television as material culture at the British exhibition in the first half of the twentieth century, women's roles in television production, past and present, to popular 1960s television such as The Liver Birds and, in the twenty-first century, highly successful programmes including Orange Is the New Black, Call the Midwife, One Born Every Minute and Wanted Down Under. This book presents ground-breaking research on historical and contemporary relationships between women and television around the world and is an ideal resource for students of television media and gender studies.

Tourism and Foreign Direct Investment H. Cristina Jönsson, 2022-03-02 This is the first volume to examine and shed significant light on the issues, challenges and prospects presented by foreign direct investment (FDI) in tourism, a topic of increasing relevance in light of the COVID-19 pandemic and economic consequences. This book addresses the need to examine the TFDI phenomenon, considering resilient tourism development approaches and includes discussion on impacts of a rapidly evolving global pandemic on tourism. Recognising that its impact on tourism has only just begun, the book includes early estimates of the damage to the tourism economy and TFDI over 2020 and beyond. It considers how the COVID-19 pandemic may change society, the economy and tourism and how some of the key research needs to understand these changes and contribute to a more sustainable post pandemic tourism sector Through a collection of chapters focusing on principles practices and a diverse range of destination case studies the book considers TFDI from the economic social and environmental and regulatory perspectives Thus the book will advance understanding of the positive and negative impacts of TFDI as well as how emerging problems and wider implications for local economies and communities can be managed more sustainably while also discussing the transformative opportunities offered by TFDI regarding key economic social and environmental issues This will be essential reading for upper level students and researchers in the field of tourism development Duet Eleanor Chan,2026-01-06 A lush new history of music that transcends eras borders personalities and genres by revealing how music is something seen as well as heard Classically trained musician and art historian Eleanor Chan takes us deep into the visual and material manifestations of music transforming our understanding of the story of art and music Plunging the reader into the body of a performer and the eyes of an art historian this wonderful book explores the history of music through a series of objects both everyday and unusual revealing how music has always been something that we visualize From the sumptuously illuminated manuscripts of Ethiopia and Safavid Iran to the decorated porcelain flutes of China from Brazilian opera houses to the jazz inspired abstract paintings by artists throughout the world Chan opens windows onto the ways that art has been heard and music has been seen throughout time From France India Brazil Guyana Iraq Italy Turkey Ethiopia Egypt and Armenia to Greece China Japan Korea Russia Iran the Netherlands Germany Wales Nigeria Sweden the United Kingdom and the United States Duet An Artful History of Music reveals just how many connections and cross pollinations there have been between art and music making cultures over the centuries and across the globe Music is interwoven into the fabric of our lives We listen to it some of us play it but throughout history we have also attempted to capture it visually from the musical images of Ancient Sumer to Frozen s Elsa standing on the side of a mountain her voice making crystals in the air In this harmonious tale of music and art the reader embarks on visual journey through sound With the same wonder as Katherine Rundell s Vanishing Creatures and the paradigm shifting power of The Story of Art Without Men by Katy Hessel this deep and winding exploration of music s visual and material manifestations transforms our understanding of its story to one built by communities and the every wo man not just by the artists performers composers whose flame shines brightest
