Managing Negative Emotions Perversion:

Perversion Tina Seals, 2014-10-26 This book speaks about managing the negative emotions associated with the demonic spirits of lust and perversion Perversion Prof. Lisa Downing, Dany Nobus, 2018-04-24 Perversion its ubiquity in infantile life and its persistence in the psychical and sexual lives of some adults was a central element of Freud's lifelong work The problem of perversion has since been revisited by many psychoanalytic schools with the result that Freud's original view of perversion has been replaced by numerous often contradictory perspectives on its aetiology development and treatment The concept of perversion has also been significant for the disciplines of cultural studies and gender and queer theory which have explored the creative and dissident powers of perversion while expressing a suspicion of its operation as a pathological category This bi-partite collection offers a series of perspectives on perversion by a range of psychoanalytic practitioners and theorists edited by Dany Nobus and a selection of papers by scholars who work with or critique psychoanalytic theories of perversion edited by Lisa Downing It stages a serious dialogue between psychoanalysis and its commentators on the controversial issue of non normative sexuality Assessing and Managing Problematic Sexual Interests Geraldine Akerman, Derek Perkins, Ross Bartels, 2020-07-19 Assessing and Managing Problematic Sexual Interests A Practitioner's Guide provides a thorough review of atypical sexual interests and offers various ways through which they can be measured and controlled including compassion focused and psychoanalytic approaches This unique guide presents a detailed analysis of deviant sexual interest Part I Assessment overviews the range of sexual interests and fantasies in men and women Part II Management investigates the cutting edge tools approaches interventions and treatment advances used in a variety of settings to control deviant sexual interest In Part III Approaches to assessment and management the authors consider how females with sexual convictions can be assessed and how offence paralleling behaviour can be used for assessment and treatment Throughout Assessing and Managing Problematic Sexual Interests offers necessary perspectives and emerging research from international experts at the forefront of this field With a thorough assessment of current research and a critical overview of treatment advances for problematic sexual interests Assessing and Managing Problematic Sexual Interests is an essential resource for clinical and forensic psychologists probation officers academics students working in the field and members of allied professional fields Best Practices in Sexual Offender Assessment and Management Ruth J. Men and Mothers Hendrika C. Freud, 2018-03-08 Not all men vie with their fathers for the love of their mothers In some families the mother becomes the central figure for her son the father is excluded or excludes himself and does not come between mother and son The main thesis of this book using clinical vignettes and quotes from the work of Marcel Proust to illustrate the author's points is that in these cases fantasies of matricide replace patricide Men develop their male gender identity by being permitted to separate from their mother early on but when a man does not resolve his infantile tie to his mother he risks remaining in a passive and or dependent position towards her Over identification with the mother might ensue hampering masculine development Mothers who seek emotional support by binding their sons too closely can become seductive towards them The child is inclined to try to satisfy the emotional needs of his mother and he fears rejection if he asserts his independence instead of complying

The Misuse of Persons Stanley J. Coen, 2013-11-26 In this major contribution to contemporary psychoanalysis Stanley Coen illuminates a heretofore undescribed character structure especially resistant to analytic process Pathologically dependent patients for Coen are identified not by surface character traits but by their response to the intrapsychic demands of analysis Such patients remain in treatment sometimes contentedly sometimes amid rebukes and complaints but they do not profit from it Their inability to use insight especially in the transference is matched by a proclivity for sadomasochistic enmeshment In analysis this tendency translates into a continuing dependent attachment to the analyst In exploring the genetic roots of pathological dependency Coen ranges beyond extant trauma theories in describing a pattern of parent child interaction in which repetitive behavioral enactments substitute for the acceptance and resolution of conflicts both intrapsychic and interpersonal In analysis pathologically dependent patients use the analyst as they have come to use significant others throughout their lives as part of a defensive structure characterized by repetitive enactments and a refusal to face what is wrong with them This misuse of others is infused with destructiveness hostility and rage and the analyst necessarily becomes the object of these powerful emotions With such patients then the road to therapeutic progress invariably passes through the analysis of mutual transferential and countertransferential hate the patient's tempting invitations to collusion and avoidance notwithstanding
