Shelly, being the complete opposite, was well connected and respected in the streets and like a hustler, she had the do anything for the money attitude. When Mario got laid off from his job, Shelly's old ways reappeared, followed by a slew of bad decisions that sends their family and the peace they've gained into complete chaos. A sudden turn of events leaves Mercedes, their only child, left to fend for herself for a little while but not on Shelly's watch. While on a quest to find herself, Mercedes slowly starts to uncover the ugly truth about the event that drastically changed her life, in which that leads her to conduct a full blown street investigation of her own. What do you do when your back is against the wall and all else fails and the lines between love and sacrifice blurs?
