The Great Indian Phone Book Assa Doron, Robin Jeffrey, 2013-04-02 In 2001 India had 4 million cell phone subscribers Ten years later that number had exploded to more than 750 million Over just a decade the mobile phone was transformed from a rare and unwieldy instrument to a palm sized affordable staple taken for granted by poor fishermen in Kerala and affluent entrepreneurs in Mumbai alike The Great Indian Phone Book investigates the social revolution ignited by what may be the most significant communications device in history one which has disrupted more people and relationships than the printing press wristwatch automobile or railways though it has qualities of all four In this fast paced study Assa Doron and Robin Jeffrey explore the whole ecosystem of the cheap mobile phone Blending journalistic immediacy with years of field research experience in India they portray the capitalists and bureaucrats who control the cellular infrastructure and wrestle over bandwidth rights the marketers and technicians who bring mobile phones to the masses and the often poor village bound users who adapt these addictive and sometimes troublesome devices to their daily lives Examining the challenges cell phones pose to a hierarchy bound country the authors argue that in India where caste and gender restrictions have defined power for generations the disruptive potential of mobile phones is even greater than elsewhere The Great Indian Phone Book is a rigorously researched multidimensional tale of what can happen when a powerful and readily available technology is placed in the hands of a large still predominantly poor population

The Digitalization Conundrum in India Keshab Das, Bhabani Shankar Prasad Mishra, Madhabananda Das, 2021-03-01 This book examines the nature extent and implications of rapid strides digitalization has made in India since the turn of the millennium These have been examined not merely in the sphere of information and communication technology ICT but its multifarious applications spreading across almost all aspects of production services and institutions which have profound repercussions for the transformation of the society and economy at the micro meso and macro levels With contributions from both ICT scholars and social scientists this book presents diverse scenarios and unravels challenges faced in the process of technical applications access by the users of these disruptive technologies automation e commerce big data analytics algorithms artificial intelligence cloud computing etc which unlike heavy machines embodied technology mostly defy physical space pace of mobility and inoperability between technologies Chapters in this volume address challenges and possibilities in establishing and operating intricate engineering infrastructure technical and societal constraints encountered in broad basing digitalization across layers of educational and social skills conducive to difficult geographies Issues dealt within this book include farming healthcare education food processing e commerce labour rural community development open source data and information democracy The chapters also reflect upon implications on local economy and society of the very global nature of these seamless technologies where inter operability remains the quintessential advantage of digitalization whether promoted or spearheaded through the state private sector or global capital The book critiques policy inadequacies and suggests plausible policy approaches to reduce the adverse impacts of fast digitalization and broad base potential benefits across space and levels of socio economic development of regions and society This book would be of interest to scholars practitioners technocrats industry analysts policy makers and civil society agencies      Business Venezuela ,2007      India Today ,2003-07      Development with Global Value Chains Dev Nathan,Meenu Tewari,Sandip Sarkar,2019-01-24 Can firms and economies utilize global value chains for development How can they move from low income to middle income and even high income status This book addresses these questions through a series of case studies examining upgradation and innovation by firms operating in GVCs in Asia The countries examined are China India South Korea the Philippines and Sri Lanka with studies of firms operating in varied sectors aerospace components apparel automotive consumer electronics including mobile phones telecom equipment IT software and services and pharmaceuticals      Social Media Marketing Alan Charlesworth,2017-11-21 Published in 1837 Hans Christian Andersen s The Emperor s New Clothes tells the tale of two weavers who present a non existent suit of clothes to the Emperor with the caution that the suit is invisible to those who are unfit for their positions stupid or incompetent As the Emperor parades in his underwear no one dares to say that they see no clothes with the exception for one small child who exclaims he isn t wearing anything at all Fast forward to the present day and business owners and managers around the world are told that anyone who cannot see the benefits of social media marketing are unfit for their positions stupid or incompetent As organizations brands and products fill the social media landscape with meaningless objectiveless drivel that has interest to no one and serves only to waste resources and alienate customers a small voice can be heard exclaiming who told you that was a good idea The caveat to this contemporary tale is that for a very few organizations brands and products social media has provided a kind of marketing panacea Correction make that a very very few organizations For the rest they are metaphorically parading in their digital underwear All is not lost however Although many have been duped in a new clothes esque sting and that their social media marketing efforts are indeed invisible but marketing on social media might just be riding to the rescue      Daily Graphic Yaw Boadu-Ayebofoh,2005-12-22      Business World ,2005      Global Sources Telecom Products ,2007      The Hindu Survey of Indian Industry Hindu (Madras, India),2005      The Hindu Index ,2006      East London and Border ,2001      Associated Automotive Journal and Garage Dealer ,1921      Pakistan & Gulf Economist ,2003-11      IT & Telecom Digest ,2004      Voice & Data ,2005      Motor Age ,1909      Directory of British Associations & Associations in Ireland ,2007      Rhodesia Telephone Directory Southern Rhodesia.
