Quick Children's Ideas Guide:

Quick Bibliography Series, 1976 Nutrition Education for Preschoolers, 1983 Abstract A selected listing of 93 nutrition education resources is provided to aid child care center staff and family day care home providers in initiating or maintaining a nutrition education program for children of ages 2-5. The materials in this guide are organized into 5 sections according to either intended audience of instruction or to type of material. The 5 sections comprise nutrition education programs, materials directed towards child and adult audiences for providing a complete child care nutrition education program, aids for teaching caregivers, materials directed towards child care providers and parents, lesson plans for teaching children food and nutrition activities for teaching children, and audiovisuals for teaching children and caregivers. Each section includes an introduction providing additional information on the types of materials included. Each resource citation includes information on the type of material, source, availability, cost, an abstract, and an appraisal. Teaching Children to Care Ruth Charney, 2002-03-01 Ruth Charney gives teachers help on things that really matter. She wants children to learn how to care for themselves, their fellow students, their environment, and their work. Her book is loaded with practical wisdom. Using Charney's positive approach to classroom management will make the whole school day go better. Nel Noddings, Professor Emerita, Stanford University and author of Caring. This definitive work about classroom management will show teachers how to turn their vision of respectful, friendly, academically rigorous classrooms into reality. The new edition includes more information on teaching middle school students. Additional strategies for helping children with challenging behavior. Updated stories and examples from real classrooms. Teaching Children to Care offers educators a practical guide to one of the most effective social and emotional learning programs I know of. The Responsive Classroom approach creates an ideal environment for learning, a pioneering program every teacher should know about. Daniel Goleman, Author of Emotional Intelligence. I spent one whole summer reading Teaching Children to Care. It was like a rebirth for me. This book helped direct my professional development. After reading it, I had a path to follow. I now look forward to rereading this book each August to refresh and reinforce my ability to effectively manage a social curriculum in my classroom. Gail Zimmerman, second grade teacher, Jackson Mann Elementary School, Boston, MA Motor Development and Movement Activities for Preschoolers and Infants with Delays Jo E. Cowden, Carol C. Torrey, 2007 Thoroughly revised and updated, this second edition continues to present both a theoretical and practical approach to motor development and adapted physical activity programs for preschoolers and infants with delays or disabilities. Written from a broad perspective, the authors use easy-to-understand language so that families, caregivers, students, and teachers may provide instruction utilizing the ecological dynamics of various environments. Chapter topics include motor development, organization of the nervous system, muscle tone, medical and biological considerations including prematurity and low birth weight, drug exposure, and autism spectrum disorders, assessment principles of intervention, and multi-sensory activities. This new edition identifies the effects of Autism Spectrum

Disorders on sensory dysfunction and provides activity interventions to be used by movement specialists. Additionally, the book explains the principles of motor development and answers questions related to positioning, lifting, carrying, and feeding of young children. Practical suggestions and activities are provided for families and professionals to enhance sensory motor development of the young child during structured motor intervention and throughout the day. Generously illustrated, this comprehensive book is an excellent resource for adapted physical educators, early interventionists, and caregivers in motor development for young children with delays or identified disabilities. It will additionally serve as a reference for individuals developing motor programs for older children, particularly children with severe sensory motor delays.
