Queering Representation Manon Tremblay, 2019-11-15 Political representation matters. And representation requires participation voting joining political parties running as candidates acting as politicians. Yet the election of openly LGBTQ people is a relatively recent phenomenon in the West. Queering Representation explores long ignored issues relating to LGBTQ voters and politicians in Canada. What are the LGBTQ electorate's characteristics and voting behaviours and what empowerment has it achieved through electoral systems? How do straight voters view out LGBTQ politicians and what part do the media play in framing these perceptions? What pathways to power do LGBTQ politicians follow? Do they represent LGBTQ people and communities in particular and if so how is this role articulated? And finally how do Canadian party ideologies shape LGBTQ representation? The contributors to Queering Representation address these
