Epiphany In Spaaace English Edition:

Samuel Beckett and Translation Mar Garre Garcia, Jose Francisco Fernandez, 2021-08-20 Samuel Beckett and Translation explores the idea that at the core of Beckett's work there is no fixed centre but a constant movement between variants of French and English This collection of newly commissioned edited essays opens up original lines of enquiry into this restless impulse and how it finds a resonance in Beckett's writing Topics including Beckett's self translations translations of other authors and poetics of translation are discussed in an Introduction and thirteen chapters followed by a section of commentary from seasoned translators who have worked on Beckett's texts In examining the full range of Beckett's literary genres this book presents how the high voltage released by Beckett's bilingualism informs the intricacies of his literary production

Time and Space in Ancient Myth, Religion and Culture SNF-Projekt, Menelaos Christopoulos, Athina Papachrysostomou, 2017-10-10 From Homer to Sophocles and Greek Middle Comedy and from Plato and Protagoras to Ovid this volume features a panoramic and cross generic overview of the diverse handling and ad hoc elaboration of the overarching literary notions of time and space The twenty one contributions of this volume written by an international group of esteemed scholars provide an equal number of hermeneutic approaches to individual distinct aspects of Greek and Latin literature The volume is purposely designed not as a linear display of knowledge but rather as an anthology of select paradigms that aim to demonstrate the multidimensional function and multifaceted role of the twin notions of time and space throughout ancient Greek and Latin literary texts The volume opens with analyses of conspicuous cases from epic poetry proceeds with examples from drama tragedy and comedy and concludes with diverse instances of chronotopes empirical imaginary and even shifting ones in various literary genres The volume is of greatest relevance since it meets the cultural and theoretical trends of today's Classics It therefore will attract not only the interest of specialised Classicists but it is also intended for a wider general readership

Space and the Postmodern Fantastic in Contemporary Literature Patricia Garcia, 2015-04-24 Arising from the philosophical conviction that our sense of space plays a direct role in our apprehension and construction of reality both factual and fictional this book investigates how conceptions of postmodern space have transformed the history of the impossible in literature Deeply influenced by the work of Jorge Luis Borges and Julio Cortázar there has been an unprecedented rise in the number of fantastic texts in which the impossible is bound to space space not as scene of action but as impossible element performing a fantastic transgression within the storyworld This book conceptualizes and contextualizes this postmodern fantastic use of space that disrupts the reader's comfortable notion of space as objective reality in favor of the concept of space as socially mediated constructed and conventional In an illustration of the transnational nature of this phenomenon García analyzes a varied corpus of the Fantastic in the past four decades from different cultures and languages merging literary analysis with classical questions of space related to the fields of philosophy urban studies and anthropology Texts include authors such as Julio Cortázar Argentina John Barth USA J G Ballard UK

Jacques Sternberg Belgium Fernando Iwasaki Per Juan Jos Mill s Spain and ric Faye France This book contributes to Literary Theory and Comparative Literature in the areas of the Fantastic narratology and Geocriticism and informs the continuing interdisciplinary debate on how human beings make sense of space Icons of Space Jelena Bogdanović,2021-07-26 Icons of Space Advances in Hierotopy brings together important scholars of Byzantine religion art and architecture to honour the work of renowned art historian Alexei Lidov As well as his numerous publications Lidov is well known for developing the concept of hierotopy an innovative approach for studying the creation of sacred spaces Hierotopy and the related concepts of spatial icons and image paradigms emphasize fundamental questions about icons including what defines them as structures spaces and experiences Chapters in this volume engage with the overarching theme of icons of space by employing contrasting and complementing methods of hierotopy with more traditional approaches such as iconography Examinations of icons have traditionally been positioned within strictly historical theological socio economic political and art history domains but this volume poses epistemological questions about the creation of sacred spaces that are instead inclusive of multi layered iconic ideas and the lived experiences of the creators and beholders of such spaces This book contributes to image theory and theories of architecture and sacred space Simultaneously it moves beyond colonial studies that predominantly focus on questions of religion and politics as expressions of privileged knowledge and power This book will appeal to scholars and students of Byzantine history as well as those interested in hierotopy and art history Somaesthetic Experience and the Viewer in Medicean Florence Allie Terry-Fritsch,2025-10-01 Viewers in the Middle Ages and Renaissance were encouraged to forge connections between their physical and affective states when they experienced works of art They believed that their bodies served a critical function in coming to know and make sense of the world around them and intimately engaged themselves with works of art and architecture on a daily basis This book examines how viewers in Medicean Florence were self consciously cultivated to enhance their sensory appreciation of works of art and creatively self fashion through somaesthetics Mobilized as a technology for the production of knowledge with and through their bodies viewers contributed to the essential meaning of Renaissance art and in the process bound themselves to others By investigating the framework and practice of somaesthetic experience of works by Benozzo Gozzoli Donatello Benedetto Buglioni Giorgio Vasari and others in fifteenth and sixteenth century Florence the book approaches the viewer as a powerful tool that was used by patrons to shape identity and power in the Renaissance The Rise of English Literary Prose George Philip Krapp,1915 Travel, Time, and Space in the Middle Ages and Early Modern Time Albrecht Classen,2018-10-22 Research on medieval and early modern travel literature has made great progress which now allows us to take the next step and to analyze the correlations between the individual and space throughout time which contributed essentially to identity formation in many different settings The contributors to this volume engage with a variety of pre modern texts images and other documents related to travel and the individual s self orientation in foreign lands and make an
