In Part I You'll Vet Your Story Idea Not all ideas are worth the time it takes to marinate on or outline them let alone finish a draft based on them That's why you'll develop your story idea first to make sure it has the 6 components that all compelling stories share This way you'll know it has enough substance to sustain a full length draft appeal to attract an audience to it

In Part II You'll Build Your Story's Structure This is where you'll shape your idea into a well plotted story with structural markers to write toward Think of it like creating your own novel outline template or script outline template Now you won't get stuck You'll know where you're headed you'll have purpose and direction when you write Are you a pantsers Good news There's still plenty of story left to discover You can stay close to your characters and pants away between each structural signpost while knowing your story won't end well in a dead end Are you a plotter Then continue on

In Part III You'll Generate ALL the Plot Points in Your Story Plotters Only As a plotter when you sit down to write you want to know exactly what you're going to write about because this makes writing less stressful for you helps you maximize your writing time That's why when plotting a story you need to know what happens between each structural turning point That's what you'll figure out now You'll use a radical new outlining method to plot out your entire story in as little as 2 hours Psst It incorporates a simple technique Stanford researchers have concluded can make you 60% more creative on average
