

The general effect which I received from the "The Great Gatsby" was bitterness. All along Tom showed nothing but harsh feelings for Gatsby. He was determined to expose the true character that Gatsby really was by exposing the truth behind the ways he made his money and became as rich as he was. Daisy herself felt bitterness toward Tom even though throughout the movie she seemed unaffected by the fact that Tom was having an affair with Myrtle.

This effect of bitterness was well produced through the characterization, acting and the ending. Daisy seemed to be the type of character who didn't really express all her feelings of bitterness toward Tom. Instead she would bottle up these feelings. She knew all along that Tom was seeing someone though she would not let out her feelings, she would just continue to live her life as though this affair was non-existent. Tom being the character that he was, was the complete opposite of Daisy. After learning from Daisy that she never really loved him he would constantly try to "put down" Gatsby and try to expose him as the sham that he really was. He made fun of the way that Gatsby called him and Nick "old sport" and found out of the illegal ways in which he made his money and exposed it to him in front of others.

The acting of Daisy was especially great because for the most part, (especially in the beginning where Nick learns of Tom's affair at Daisy's home) you are able to see how the affair deeply hurts Daisy and that she is angered even though she does not say a word about it at the dinner table. Though undoubtedly the greatest demonstration of bitterness in the movie was shown through Tom. Wilson only found out that Gatsby was in the car that killed Myrtle through Tom. This ultimately led Wilson to kill Gatsby along

Great Gatsby Character Paper:

A Piagetian Reading of "The Great Gatsby". Gatsby's Character and Augmented Reality Marie H., 2014-10-14 Seminar paper from the year 2014 in the subject American Studies Literature grade 1 7 RWTH Aachen University Institut für Anglistik Amerikanistik und Romanistik language English abstract The paper at hand will focus especially on Piaget's second development stage the preoperational stage which covers children around the age of three Subsequently the character of Jay Gatsby will be analyzed Does Gatsby act like a three year old boy and in how far does this affect his reality One question answered in the conclusion is if it is possible to analyze Gatsby only considering his egocentrism and is Piaget the right theorist to use as a base In how far can Gatsby be reduced to only one of his attributes The most important literature that will be used is the novel The Great Gatsby by Fitzgerald as well as three publications written by Piaget Meine Theorie der Geistigen Entwicklung eng My Theory of Mental Development Possibility and Necessity Vol 1 the Role of Possibility in Cognitive Development and Theorien und Methoden der Modernen Erziehung eng Theories and Methods of Modern Education Those three publications are used because they are primary literature as well as relevant to the topic since they cover almost everything needed for this term paper This literature and such more will first give a definition of what the preoperational stage includes especially focusing on the egocentrism which will then build the base for the character analysis By analyzing Gatsby's character I want to ascertain his obvious egocentrism All in all I believe that Piaget is a start to analyze Gatsby's psyche He is not the usual theorist used for character analysis since he focused his research on children Yet I believe Piaget is the right choice for this topic I chose him as the foundation of the paper to point out Gatsby's inner child

About "The Great Gatsby" by F. Scott Fitzgerald Janina Gaiser, 2018-03-06 Seminar paper from the year 2014 in the subject American Studies Literature grade 1 0 University of Constance language English abstract The Great Gatsby by Fitzgerald is considered to be one of the greatest American novels one of the key themes in the book is Gatsby's dream and it will be the centre of this term paper Out of the various approaches to the book this paper will focus on the character constellation of the protagonist Jay Gatsby and Daisy the woman with whom he falls in love How does Gatsby's dream develop in connection with his fascination to Daisy Claiming that although two people are involved his dream is only focused on himself I will try to show at least to a certain extent how Gatsby's dream has three basic and related parts the desire to repeat the past the desire for money and the desire for incarnation of unutterable visions in the material earth Lockridge 1968 Since Daisy represents all of these dreams when they meet for the first time she becomes the personification of his dream but in the course of the events their paths become separated Therefore this term paper will also investigate how Gatsby's dream further develops since being separated from Daisy and finally what happens when he meets Daisy again why does she in the end tumble short of his dreams Fitzgerald 2000 Regarding the often discussed issue whether or not Fitzgerald was writing a myth specifically about America and the American Dream or whether Gatsby's dream can attain a wider relevance I will not be able to refer to in much detail The paper will also not discuss the point of narrative but it is nevertheless crucial to mention that Gatsby is presented almost entirely through Nick's puzzled and often disapproving eyes Parkinson 1988

The Great Gatsby - Characters, modern society and the end of a dream Shiva Rezaeifard, 2006-02-13 Seminar paper from the year 2003 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Literature grade 1.7 Ruhr University of Bochum language English abstract Reading the The Great Gatsby I was very impressed about the style and the way the author let his actors behave or the description of the settings At first sight it gives the impression of a lucid and meaningless novel but it contains many disguise and metaphoric meanings What impressed me most was the ascent and downfall of a kind and naive man by the cruel and wicked society In the following pages I try to explain and to analyse Gatsby's sole dream his obsession for his one time love Daisy First of all as a foundation I will characterize the main actors then analyse the important settings and their influence on the figures and finally try to explain why it ends in this way
