Creativity, Activity, Service (CAS) for the IB Diploma John Cannings, Maria Ines Piaggio, Peter Muir, Tom Brodie, 2015-10-15 Creativity Activity Service CAS an essential guide for students This book offers advice and guidance on how to select a CAS activity and how to approach the task    The SAGE Handbook of Research in International Education Mary Hayden, Jack Levy, Jeff Thompson, 2015-10-13 The landscape of international education has changed significantly in the last ten years and our understanding of concepts such as international, global and multicultural are being re-evaluated. Fully updated and revised and now including new contributions from research in South East Asia, the Middle East, China, Japan, Australasia and North America, the new edition of this handbook analyses the origins, interpretations and contributions of international education and explores key contemporary developments including internationalism in the context of teaching and learning, leadership standards and quality in institutions and systems of education, the promotion of internationalism in national systems. This important collection of research is an essential resource for anyone involved in the practice and academic study of international education, including researchers and teachers in universities, governmental and private curriculum development agencies, examination authorities, administrators and teachers in schools    The

International Baccalaureate Diploma Program and the School Library Anthony Tilke, 2011-03-11 This book, a blend of practice and theory, shows how the school library can contribute to the success of the International Baccalaureate Diploma Program. Written for librarians in schools that are applying to offer the program as well as those who already work with it, The International Baccalaureate Diploma Program and the School Library: Inquiry Based Education provides information and strategies specifically relating libraries to the IBDP. The guide includes information about the IBDP, ranging from the subject matrix to unique aspects of the program such as the Theory of Knowledge course, the Extended Essay requirement and the Learner Profile. The book also discusses other important features of IB programs such as internationalism and academic honesty. Finally, it blends theory and practice by providing details and findings from the only two year research study to follow students and teachers through the IBDP. The study demonstrates the role of the school library in the program, showing how both students and teachers used and valued it. Each chapter concludes with a series of points or strategies for the librarian to reflect upon and/or use as the basis of action    International Education and Schools Richard Pearce, 2013-10-24 Over the last forty years, the estimated number of international schools worldwide has increased from fewer than 300 to 6400 in 2012. This explosion is a response to the needs of a world in which borders are being traversed with ever greater ease and children increasingly need to be prepared for the global opportunities that await them. In this book, international school specialists reflect on where the movement has come from, how it stands and where developments are heading, offering insightful observations on these unique institutions. This is a comprehensive resource for students, researchers and professionals with an interest in the future of education in a globalized world    Perspectives on the IB Diploma Core Jeff

Thompson,Judith,Fabian,Mary,Hayden,2019-10-15 The Diploma Programme was the first programme to be devised and implemented by the International Baccalaureate over fifty years ago Since its creation the curriculum upon which the programme is based has been continuously developed to take into account the rapidly changing needs of students schools higher education and employment contexts For much of that time the programme has included three essential components that must be undertaken by students who wish to graduate with the Diploma Theory of Knowledge Extended Essay and Creativity Activity Service CAS Taken together over time these have come to be regarded as a core of the Diploma Programme although they were not described as such at the outset This edited collection is intended to provide input into the current review of the IB Diploma Programme It comprises contributions from experienced authors researchers and practitioners who were invited to reflect upon the nature of the core as it exists at present to raise issues in relation to the future development of the core and to share experience in the learning and teaching of the core components across a wide range of schools in both national and international systems of education Questions concerning the concept of the core as a whole developing students as internationally minded thinkers and the challenges of bringing coherence to the core in establishing a holistic approach to the curriculum underpin the individual chapters throughout Contributors Edward Allanson Tom Brodie John Cannings Christian Chiarenza Mary Donnellan Jenny Gillett Robin Julian Julian Kitching Justin Laleh Ann Lautrette James MacDonald Shona McIntosh Heather Michael Paul Regan John Royce John Sprague George Walker
