My son works at Hershey's and recently told me about a little-known deal. If you're over 55, you can get a 25 lb box of Hershey's Kisses chocolates for less than $15. I was skeptical at first, but it turned out to be completely legit. Right now they're clearing out extra stock, and instead of letting it go to waste, they're basically giving it away. All you have to do is fill out a short form. I left the link in the comments for anyone interested. I filled out the form for my husband, he's 59 and loves chocolate. When the box arrived, he was honestly blown away. The chocolates looked perfect, nicely packed, and there was more inside than we expected. The whole process took less than a minute—just answered a couple of questions, and that's it. I'll put the link in the comments!
