Chapter 7 Study Guide

CHAPTER 7: VOTING, ELECTIONS, AND POLITICAL PARTICIPATION

2. Elections in Georgia and the United States: Key Features and Concepts

Authority to Establish and Administer Election Laws

- To which level of government (local, state, national) does the U.S. Constitution give primary responsibility for regulating and administering elections for federal office? State
- Are election laws mostly the same from state to state or do they tend to vary markedly across states? Why? Voting rules and procedures vary from state to state because amendments in constitution (15, 19, 26th) and federal laws such as voting rights act of 1965 establish general standards but states otherwise have wide discretion.
- In Georgia, are elections administered by a single centralized agency, or are they administered by each county in the state? Coordinated and overseen by Elections division of Georgia but Primary responsibility is placed on each of the 159 counties

Types of Elections in Georgia

- What is a primary election? Held to determine political party nominees What is a general election? Where the party nominees run against each other to determine who serves in office

 - Georgia House of Representatives Even
 - U.S. House of Representatives Even
 - U.S. President Even Every 4 years
