The Parliamentary Debates (official Report). Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons,1920 Missing Presumed Dead ,2011 Missing Presumed Dead represents work that first and foremost can be appreciated for its abstract formal qualities such as form colour and composition The work may be derived from constructed images or from the manipulation of process whether concrete or digital Some may arrive at forms of abstraction through the specific use of framing when recording a subject while others might go much further so that a direct identification with the subject becomes ever more difficult or impossible The viewer is left to experience the work as object and the formal qualities this brings Central to all the selected work is the idea that these images exist in varying degrees as self referential objects What the work loses in representation it gains in pictorial power free and autonomous from representational limitations
