Great War Fighter Aces 1914 1916 Images Of War:

Great War Fighter Aces, 1914-1916 Norman Franks, 2014-09-30 Here Norman Franks tells the story in words and images of the emergence of some of the greatest fighter aces to see action during the first half of the First World War He explores the manner in which the situation developed from late 1914 to the late summer of 1916 the point at which Oswald Boelcke helped form the German Jasta system that would prove so devastating to the RFC and RNAS Utilizing images drawn from his large personal archive of photographs Franks profiles some of the greatest and most notorious aces as well as the aircraft in which they flew The first years of the war saw some of the bravest acts of pilot gallantry and ingenuity play out Franks celebrates the legacy of just a handful of these individuals participants on both sides including Boelcke s premier ace Manfred Von Richtofen Lanoe Hawker Georges Guynemer Albert Ball Lionel Rees Wilhelm Frankl and Stanley Dallas amongst many others Great War Fighter Aces Norman L. R. Franks, 2014 Great War Fighter Aces 1916-1918

Norman Franks, 2017 Irish Aces of the RFC and the RAF in the First World War Joe Gleeson, 2017-05-17 The First World War had an enormous impact on Ireland Over 240 000 Irish men and women volunteered to serve with the Allied forces suffering almost 40 000 casualties The Irish contribution to the air war remains overlooked not just in Ireland but also by historians generally Although just 6 000 Irish served with the Allied flying services at a cost of 500 casualties their impact was out of all proportion to their numbers The contribution of Irish aces of the RFC and RAF to the Allied cause was enormous just over thirty of whom accounted for 400 enemy aircraft Irishmen such as Mannock McElroy and Hazell were among the highest scoring pilots of the war Some were revered by their men others were controversial figures reckless with their own lives and those under their command but many of their stories remain untold This book seeks to restore all those who were written out of Irish history while also providing for their achievements to be considered in the overall context of the first air war Illustrations 24 black and white photographs J. Bourne, 2000-11 Great War Fighter Aces 1916 - 1918 Norman Franks, 2017 By the close of 1916 the air war over France was progressing amazingly The Royal Flying Corps the French Air Force and the opposing German Air Service were all engaged in fierce aerial conflict and the Allied air forces were following a particularly successful if aggressive policy They were taking the war to the Germans by constantly crossing the massive trench system that stretched from the North Sea to the Swiss border With observation and bombing aircraft requiring constant protection from the German fighter Jastas the fighter aces on both sides soon gained publicity and fame as a result of their daily engagements This book explores the many ways in which fighter pilots developed tactics in order to outdo the opposition in the fight for allied victory In so doing they achieved high honors on account of their prowess in the skies It also looks at the development of militarized flight during the course of these key years revealing how each side constantly endeavored to improve their aircraft and their gunnery By early 1918 the Americans were also starting to take part in the war against Germany and any number of US citizens were joining both the French Air Service as well as manning their own Aero Squadrons This publication covers the development of American air combat whilst also recording the efforts of some of their ace pilots flying both British and French aircraft with precision and skill Reckless Fellows Edward Bujak,2015-09-25 The Royal Flying Corps later the Royal Air Force was formed in 1912 and went to war in 1914 where it played a vital role in reconnaissance supporting the British Expeditionary Force as air cavalry and also in combat establishing air superiority over the Imperial German Air Force Edward Bujak here combines the history of the air war including details of strategy tactics technical issues and combat with a social and cultural history The RFC was originally dominated by the landed elite in Lloyd George s phrase from the stateliest houses in England and its pilots were regarded as knights of the air Harlaxton Manor in Lincolnshire seat of landed gentry became their major training base Bujak shows how within the circle of the RFC the class divide and unconscious superiority of Edwardian Britain disappeared absorbed by common purpose technical expertise and by an influx of pilots from Canada Australia New Zealand and South Africa He thus provides an original and unusual take on the air war in World War I combining military social and cultural history World War I Close Up Adam Powley,2015-07-15 World War I was one of the greatest tragedies in history While other wars resulted in greater casualties or lasted for longer periods of time the all encompassing and unprecedented destructive nature of the Great War makes it a conflict in the chronicles of war that still resonates to this day This text explains to readers the buildup to the major events of and the legacy of the war to end all wars through a thrilling narrative a wealth of primary source quotations and intense black and white photographs The Tangier Archive Carlos Traspaderne,2015 In 1999 a collection of small wooden boxes was discovered in a flea market in Tangier Inside these boxes were 500 glass stereoscopic negatives and handwritten notes from a French officer who took over 250 photographs between 1916 and 1918 This book highlights previously unseen images taken across the Western Front capturing all aspects of war from the banal and odd moments to the cruel and brutal ones It is a vision of one officer Aces of Jagdgeschwader Nr III Greg VanWyngarden,2016-01-20 Royal Prussian Jagdgeschwader Nr III was the third of Germany s vaunted fighter wings to be formed during World War 1 Commanded by the Pour le M rite winner and well respected ace Hauptmann Bruno Loerzer for its entire existence it was composed of the celebrated Jasta Boelcke along with Jagdstaffeln 26 27 and 36 Equipped largely with the new Fokker triplane these four units would play an important role in the Kaiserschlacht as part of the 17 Armee As Germany s fortunes waned in the summer of 1918 the aces of JG III nonetheless did their best to stem the tides of British French and later American aircraft they encountered Aces such as Carl Bolle Paul B umer Heinrich Bongartz Hermann Frommherz Rudolf Klimke and the infamous Hermann G ring all carved their names in the record books flying in this formidable formation This book examines the tactics achievements and personalities of one of the deadliest of Germany s aerial units Adult Catalog: Subjects Los Angeles County Public Library,1970 Air Pictorial ,1994 Children's Catalog H.W.
